Contemporary Europe seems to be divided between progressive cosmopolitans sympathetic to the European Union and the ideals of the Enlightenment and counter enlightened conservative nationalists extolling the virtues of homelands threatened by globalised elites and mass migration This study seeks to uncover the roots of historically informed ideas of Europe while at the same time underlining the fundamental differences between the writings of the older counter revolutionary Europeanists and their self appointed successors and detractors in the twenty first century In the decades around 1800 the era of the French Revolution counter revolutionary authors from all over Europe defended European civilisation against the onslaught of nationalist revolutionaries bent on the destruction of the existing order or so they believed In opposition to the new revolutionary world of universal and abstract principles the counter revolutionary publicists proclaimed the concept of a gradually developing European society and political order founded on a set of historical and ultimately divine institutions that had guaranteed Europe s unique freedom moderation diversity and progress since the fall of the Roman Empire These counter revolutionary Europeanists drew on the cosmopolitan Enlightenment and simultaneously criticized its alleged revolutionary legacy Throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries these ideas of European history and civilisation were rediscovered and adapted to new political contexts shaping in manifold ways our contested idea of European history and memory until today L'Église, le Pape, et son infaillibilité, les conciles, à l'occasion du Concile Œcuménique du Vatican, etc VIGNET (Jesuit.),1869 *La Question Napoléonienne.
