Higgins-Desbiolles, Lynda-Ann Blanchard, Yoko Urbain, 2022-12-26 Peace through Tourism considers the possibilities for tourism to contribute to efforts to unmask conflict and promote peace. This edited volume considers the intersections between tourism, peace, justice and sustainability through conceptual and empirical works surveying practices, problems and challenges all around the globe. It presents a complex and critical approach arguing that peace through tourism is dialogic and not as simple as describing a few good niche segments of tourism. The pedagogies of peace represented here work to analyse structural violence associated with tourism such as in the dominance of neoliberal market imperatives over local or social economies, colonising patriarchal and anthropocentric practices in tourism and tourism's complex role in post conflict settings. Analyses found here place scholars, industry and communities in conversation about building shared tourism futures where peace is understood as peace with justice and differences are bridged through dialogues towards understanding. In light of the many challenges in attaining sustainable development in the 21st century, this volume is an important and timely endeavour. Radical practices are explored that support more just tourism futures. With a new introduction, this book is an insightful resource for scholars and researchers of Tourism and Peace and Conflict Studies. The chapters in this book were originally published in Journal of Sustainable Tourism.
