Norfolk In A Nutshell:

Norfolk in a Nutshell Keith Skipper, 2014-11-14 Norfolk raconteur Keith Skipper is the master of whimsy and wit writing in the county's dialect. He adds to the range of his titles with this condensed look at Norfolk its people and their ways. Thinking of visiting this part of eastern England? Thinking to come and live there? This is the book you will need to fit in with the locals. Homesick for Norfolk? This book will make you feel at home, lift your spirits and bring a smile at the very least to your face.

Grainger the Modernist Suzanne Robinson, Kay Dreyfus, 2016-03-09 Unaccountably Percy Grainger has remained on the margins of both American music history and twentieth century modernism. This volume reveals the well known composer of popular gems to be a self-described hyper-modernist who composed works of uncompromising dissonance, challenged the conventions of folk song collection and adaptation, re-visioned the modern orchestra, experimented with ego-less composition and designed electronic machines intended to supersede human application. Grainger was far from being a self-sufficient maverick working in isolation. Through contact with innovators such as Ferruccio Busoni, Léon Theremin and Henry Cowell, promotion of the music of modern French and Spanish schools, appreciation of vernacular jazz and folk musics as well as with the study and transcription of non-Western music, he contested, received ideas and proposed many radical new approaches. By reappraising Grainger's social and historical connectedness and exploring the variety of aspects of modernity seen in his activities in the British, American and Australian contexts, the authors create a profile of a composer, propagandist and visionary whose modernist aesthetic paralleled that of the most advanced composers of his day and in some cases anticipated their practical experiments.

The World's Most Mysterious Murders Patricia Fanthorpe, 2003-06-01 Reading of murder stimulates a powerful response. We are repelled by the horror of it but simultaneously our natural curiosity is strongly aroused. We want to know who did it and why. Most unsolved murders have no apparent motives or too many motives. The murders of Sir Harry Oakes in 1943, one of the richest men in Canada, and Christine Demeter found dead in a blood-soaked garage in Mississauga in 1973 remain unsolved. In fact, history is full of unsolved murders. Who killed King William Rufus, Edward II and the Princes in the Tower? Who was Jack the Ripper? Was James Hanratty really guilty of killing Michael Gregson? These mysteries and more are contained in The World's Most Mysterious Murders.

Bird Therapy Joe Harkness, 2019-06-13 Longlisted for the 2020 Wainwright Prize. I can't remember the last book I read that I could say with absolute assurance would save lives. But this one will. Chris Packham fabulously direct and truthful, filled with energy but devoid of self-pity. I was impressed and enchanted. Highly recommended. Stephen Fry succeeds triumphantly in articulating with great honesty what it is like to suffer with a mental illness and in providing strategies for coping. Mail on Sunday. When Joe Harkness suffered a breakdown in 2013, he tried all the things his doctor recommended: medication, helped, counselling, was enlightening and mindfulness grounded him. But nothing came close.
