Desiring Whiteness Caroline Séquin,2024-10-15 Desiring Whiteness uncovers the intertwined histories of commercial sex and racial politics in France and the French Empire Since the French Revolution of 1789 the absence of laws banning interracial marriages has served to reinforce two myths about modern France first that it is a sexual democracy and second it is a color blind nation where all French citizens can freely marry whomever they wish regardless of their race Caroline S quin challenges the narrative of French exceptionalism by revealing the role of prostitution regulation in policing intimate relationships across racial and colonial boundaries in the century following the abolition of slavery Desiring Whiteness traces the rise and fall of the French model of prostitution policing in the contact zones of port cities and garrison towns across France and in Dakar Senegal the main maritime entry point of French West Africa S quin describes how the regulation of prostitution covertly policed racial relations and contributed to the making of white French identity in an imperial nation state that claimed to be race blind She also examines how sex industry workers exploited reinforced or transgressed the racial boundaries of colonial rule Brothels served as gatekeepers of whiteness in two arenas In colonial Senegal white only brothels helped deter French colonists from entering unions with African women and producing mixed race children thus consolidating white minority rule In the metropole brothels condoned interracial sex with white sex workers while dissuading colonial men from forming long term attachments with white French women Ultimately brothels followed a similar racial logic that contributed to upholding white supremacy
