Moon-Face & Other Stories Jack London, 2017-08-08
MOON FACE Excerpt John Claverhouse was a moon faced man You know the kind cheek bones wide apart chin and forehead melting into the cheeks to complete the perfect round and the nose broad and pudgy equidistant from the circumference flattened against the very centre of the face like a dough ball upon the ceiling Perhaps that is why I hated him for truly he had become an offense to my eyes and I believed the earth to be cumbered with his presence Perhaps my mother may have been superstitious of the moon and looked upon it over the wrong shoulder at the wrong time Be that as it may I hated John Claverhouse Not that he had done me what society would consider a wrong or an ill turn Far from it The evil was of a deeper subtler sort so elusive so intangible as to defy clear definite analysis in words We all experience such things at some period in our lives For the first time we see a certain individual one who the very instant before we did not dream existed and yet

The Kempton-Wace Letters and Moon-Face and Other Stories London J., Jack London was an American novelist journalist and social activist Pioneering the genre of magazine fiction and prototyping science fiction he became one of the first writers who gained worldwide fame and a large fortune The Kempton Wace Letters is an epistolary novel written by Jack London and Anna Strunsky It consists of philosophical thoughts on love and relationships written as a series of letters between two men young scientist Herbert Wace and a poet Dane Kempton Moon Face and Other Stories is a collection that contains many wonderful stories like The Leopard Man's Story Local Colour Amateur Night and others
