School Age Summer Themes:

School-age Ideas and Activities for After-school Programs Karen Haas-Foletta, Michele Cogley, Lori Ottolini
Geno, 2005 This classic which has been a standard programming book since its original publication in 1990 has been updated and revised for the 21st century Still has all the great activities that have survived the test of time with school age children but with additional materials addressing the needs of middle school students staff recruitment and retention quality standards and more The Living Church, 1944 Caring for Children in School-age Programs Derry Gosselin
Koralek, Roberta L. Newman, Laura Jean Colker, Marian Newman, 1995 Success on the Spectrum Emily Wiskera, Anna Smith, Tina Sue Fletcher, Lynda Wilbur, Francis Yong Chen, 2024-01-04 The role of arts and cultural institutions is changing Once viewed as stewards of objects institutions are increasingly upheld as stewards of people spaces where the diversity of human experience is asserted explored and celebrated As such they function as public resources and should be equally accessible to all members of diverse communities Individuals with autism spectrum disorder account for a significant portion of the community Advocates are working to shift attitudes and nomenclature with terms such as neurodiversity and sensory friendly becoming more commonplace With this cultural institutions are putting effort into creating tailored programs and resources to welcome neurodiverse visitors who have historically been excluded from these spaces Despite their desire to connect many cultural workers fear they lack the expertise or resources needed to effectively create inclusive spaces and experiences This book's content is presented by museum educators arts administrators occupational therapists and school psychologists contributors with different expertise and perspectives on the stakes of cultural arts experiences for neurodiverse visitors We offer advice based on what has worked for us and share the sometimes difficult lessons learned along the way However this advice comes with the caution there is no one size fits all solution To be truly successful arts and cultural institutions must respond to their unique community and work within the resources and limitations of their institution Our practical goals for the reader are threefold To understand the value of programming for neurodiverse visitors and effectively communicate this to others To build a toolkit of strategies and resources for neurodiverse visitors to have successful visits to cultural institutions no matter the staff size budget or current stages of accessibility To develop evaluation strategies to gauge the impact of offerings for neurodiverse visitors with results that help the reader improve grow and refine for the future Creative Activities for the Early Years Barbara Melling, 2005 Annotation Whether your topic is the autumn the Chinese New Year the coastline or kings and queens you can be sure that children will find the art and music ideas in Creative Activities for the Early Years interesting and entertaining The activities encourage children to use their imagination to communicate ideas and develop their gross and fine motor skills The activities are grouped by popular early years themes and can be used as a complete programme or as a dip in resource Never be stuck for art and craft ideas again Summer Reading Program Fun Wayne L. Johnson, Yvette C. Johnson, 1999-03 This guide to planning a summer reading

programme offers a brief background on running games clear instructions and ready to use graphics The games described include The Quest for the Golden Unicorns The White Tiger of Kalimar and Highway to the Stars Teaching in Themes

Deborah Meier, Matthew Knoester, Katherine Clunis D'Andrea, 2015 How do teachers and schools create meaningful learning experiences for students with diverse skills abilities and cultures How can teachers authentically assess the learning of their students and build on their strengths and interests in ways that enrich the larger community How can schools be turned into places where everyone is learning from each other These are the big questions that guide the work of teachers at the well known Mission Hill School in Boston and that are addressed in this book Teaching in Themes will help schools incorporate a whole school theme based curriculum that engages students across grade levels K 8 The authors provide detailed descriptions of four thematic units What's Baking Learning Together About Bread and Bakeries The Impact of Nature and Play The Struggle for Justice U S History Through the Eyes of African Americans and Astronomical Inquiries Readers will see how teachers and students design emergent inquiries within the themes and create artwork music presentations and a variety of hands on learning experiences that support differentiated instruction across the curriculum

Book Features

Examples of whole school projects designed to create a deep sense of immersion in a curricular theme and to build a multi age learning community Details of how teachers developed rich curriculum tailored to their unique students The insights of legendary educator Deborah Meier on how whole school thematic units were used to encourage collaboration among teachers An afterword by teachers and film makers about the thinking behind their work featured in the widely viewed film series A Year at Mission Hill The schools Deborah Meier created in New York and Boston are outstanding examples of democratic education in action I will never forget the first time I visited one of Deborah's schools in East Harlem and saw the joy and curiosity on the faces of children and teachers alike I took time then to carefully describe the school's practices including its portfolio based assessment system because I believed the word needed to be spread I still do Happily this new book from Deborah and her colleagues at the Mission Hill School adds to the literature on creative and collaborative teaching and on building trusting and powerful learning communities

Linda Darling Hammond Charles E Ducommun Professor of Education Stanford University Here is a book that shatters the prevailing definition of a good school as one with high test scores Teaching in Themes makes clear the often hidden fact that there are many kinds of good schools for children adults and a democratic society past and present Experienced teachers tell a fascinating story about Boston's Mission Hill School its goals curriculum classroom lessons and assessments that will knock the socks off many true believers in only one kind of a good school

Larry Cuban Professor Emeritus of Education Stanford University Real student engagement is not the result of entertaining instruction it is borne from students being passionate about their own learning about becoming young experts This book gives a behind the scenes look at Mission Hill a remarkably successful public school where the quality of student thinking and student work takes precedence over test scores and where thematic learning builds powerful intellectual
