Savannah Sabbath Series Volume 1:

Affect and Power David J. Libby, Paul Spickard, Susan Ditto, 2009-09-18 In 1968 Winthrop D Jordan published his groundbreaking work White Over Black American Attitudes toward the Negro 1550-1812 and opened up new avenues for thinking about sex slavery race and religion in American culture. Over the course of a forty year career at the University of California and the University of Mississippi he continued to write about these issues and to train others to think in new ways about interactions of race gender faith and power. Written by former students of Jordan these essays are a tribute to the career of one of America's great thinkers and perhaps the most influential American historian of his generation. The book visits historical locales from Puritan New England and French Louisiana to nineteenth century New York and Mississippi all the way to Harlem swing clubs and college campuses in the twentieth century. In the process authors listen to the voices of abolitionists and white supremacists preachers and politicos white farm women and black sorority sisters slaves and jazz musicians. Each essay represents an important contribution to the collection's larger themes and at the same time illustrates the impact Jordan exerted on the scholarly life of each author. Collectively these pieces demonstrate the attentiveness to detail and sensitivity to sources that are hallmarks of Jordan's own work.

Annual Report of the American Tract Society American Tract Society, 1845 The Baptist Missionary Magazine, 1843 RE-DRESSING MIRIAM: 19th CENTURY ARTISTIC JEWISH WOMEN Irina Rabinovich, 2012-01-26 This book aims at exploring the reciprocal interaction between art and culture and specifically how the literary and artistic images of mid nineteenth century Jewish female artists are interwoven with their factual lifestyles self representations and the reception of their work. By analyzing the reciprocal relationship between the dominant culture in which they are embedded and their work I show how the literary and artistic images of Jewish female artists as depicted by Jews and non Jews are interwoven with the factual lifestyles culture and self representations of real Jewish artists Moreover my research reveals how those representations are related to society s centuries long ambivalence towards Jews and specifically towards Jewish female artists as it is revealed in literature and art The Congregational Year-book, 1882.
