Saving Lucas T.O. Smith, SOMETIMES THE UNEXPECTED CAN BE EVERYTHING YOU ABSOLUTELY NEED Lucas Varner lived the first five years of his life with an abusive mother and a father that punished him for losing their first child to the state Lucas knew what it was like to go hungry to wonder when he would eat again He knew what sex and drugs were before he could write his own name From a young age he had learned to never ask for help to not ask any questions and to stay out of everyone s way It was something he still couldn t forget twelve years later But everyone has their own times to heal and maybe it s time for Lucas to find the light at the end of his own dark tunnel

Roe's Prediction: Love and Loyalty Carol L. Caudle, 2010-02-04 Roe s Prediction Love and Loyalty For ten year old Tony Williams life in the hood proved to be difficult Roaming the streets committing crimes and struggling to survive are only half of his problems because now he s scared lonely and sitting behind the confined walls of Juvenile Detention awaiting trial on a murder charge Growing up and watching his older brother Tyrone and half brother Guy rule the back streets with drugs hatred and violence Tony had no choice but to be pulled in and connected to a horrible crime But was it Tony who pulled the trigger that killed a Christian man that often reached out to help him Plus can the unconditional love of two Christian women and the determination of Prosecuting Attorney Roe Wilson be enough to influence the necessary changes and choices that Tony needs to make in order to live a productive life Go beyond the accounts of that haunting night and watch God move in amazing ways to save one of His confused children
