Lynching Professor Robert W Thurston,2013-07-28 Addressing one of the most controversial and emotive issues of American history this book presents a thorough reexamination of the background dynamics and decline of American lynching It argues that collective homicide in the US can only be partly understood through a discussion of the unsettled southern political situation after 1865 but must also be seen in the context of a global conversation about changing cultural meanings of race A deeper comprehension of the course of mob murder and the dynamics that drove it emerges through comparing the situation in the US with violence that was and still is happening around the world Drawing on a variety of approaches historical anthropological and literary the study shows how concepts of imperialism gender sexuality and civilization profoundly affected the course of mob murder in the US Lynching provides thought provoking analyses of cases where race was and was not a factor The book is constructed as a series of case studies grouped into three thematic sections Part I Understanding Lynching starts with accounts of mob murder around the world Part II Lynching and Cultural Change examines shifting concepts of race gender and sexuality by drawing first on the romantic travel and adventure fiction of the era 1880 1920 from authors such as H Rider Haggard and Edgar Rice Burroughs Changing images of black and white bodies form another major focus of this section Part III Blood Debate and Redemption in Georgia follows the story of American collective murder and growing opposition to it in Georgia a key site of lynching in the early twentieth century By situating

American mob murder in a wide international context and viewing the phenomenon as more than simply a tool of racial control this book presents a reappraisal of one of the most unpleasant yet important periods of America's history one that remains crucial for understanding race relations and collective violence around the world The Pig That Wants to Be Eaten Julian Baggini, 2010 The Granta backlist classic a collection of short accessible philosophical quandaries to stimulate challenge and entertain Scots Magazine, and Edinburgh Literary Miscellany ,1821 North-western Christian Advocate ,1897
