Scent Of Salvation:

Shaping the Church Martyn Percy, 2010 Shaping the Church seeks to dynamically alter the way that theologians ecclesiologists students of religion and ministers look at the church Taking the ideas of composition formation and vocation as basic ecclesial categories Martyn Percy explores how apparently innocent and incidental material is in fact highly significant for the shaping of theological and ecclesiological horizons The Introduction sets the tone with a meditation on how the apparently ordinary scent of a country church can be redolent with meaning setting the tone of expectation in relation to subsequent worship This book is not however simply about reading meanings into events ideas conversations and contexts Rather it sets out to faithfully interpret much of the material that surrounds us yet is often taken for granted or more usually unnoticed The book is an invitation to involve the scholar or minister paying close and patient attention to beliefs language artefacts rituals practices and other material all of which are constitutive for ecclesial life and theological identity Lire Descartes aujourd'hui Maurice F. Wiles, Edward Yarnold, 2001 The Spirit of Witness Martyn Percy, 2023-02-28 The term witness has become synonymous with evangelism but true witnessing is usually found in dissenting it refuses to bow to idols or to take the easy road or deny Christ and all he died for This collection is rooted in that belief that having the mind of Christ means we will do things differently It offers practical resources for pastoral care that celebrates people on the margins of the church and provides liturgies for those who suffer racism or injustice who experience tragedy and loss who raise their voices in protest or lament and more These texts do not carry the stamp of approval of any church body but will bring the light of the gospel where it is needed Arranged in six sections it includes contributions from well known and new voices covering the themes of Witness in Ordinary Time Communion Birth and Baptism United in Love Suffering Presence Death and Resurrection Celibate Marriages in Late Antique and Byzantine Hagiography Anne P. Alwis, 2011-10-27 An exploration of the phenomenon of celibate marriages in Byzantine hagiography Art Scents Larry E. Shiner, 2020 In the last twenty years there has been a marked increase in artists using smells in their works at the same time that scents are being used to accompany plays films and music There is also an increase in ambient scenting in stores and hotels and leading chefs are adding unusual scents to cuisine The book explores these olfactory activities and the aesthetic and ethical issues they raise as well as answering the traditional disparagement of the sense of smell by leading intellectuals such as Kant Darwin and Freud drawing on current science social science and humanities as well as literature Sensing the Past Mark Michael Smith, 2007 Smith's history of the sensate is destined to precipitate a revolution in our understanding of the sensibilities that underpinned the mentalities of past epochs David Howes author of Sensual Relations Engaging the Senses in Culture and Social Theory Mark M Smith presents a far ranging essay on the history of the senses that serves simultaneously as a good introduction to the historiography If one feels in danger of sensory overload from this growing body of scholarship Smith's piece is a useful preventive Leigh E Schmidt author of Restless Souls The Making of American

Spirituality This is a masterful overview The history of the senses has been a frontier field for a while now Mark Smith draws together what we know with an impressive sensory range and encourages further work A really exciting survey Peter N Stearns author of American Fear The Causes and Consequences of High Anxiety Who would ever have guessed that a book on the history of the senses seeing hearing touching tasting and smelling could be informative thought provoking and at the same time most entertaining Ranging in both time and locale Mark Smith s Sensing the Past makes even the philosophy about the senses from ancient times to now both learned and exciting This work will draw scholars into under recognized subjects and lay readers into a world we simply but unwisely take for granted Bertram Wyatt Brown author of Southern Honor Ethics and Behavior in the Old South Mark M Smith has a good record of communicating his research to a broad constituency within and beyond the academy This will be required reading for anyone addressing sensory history Penelope Gouk author of Music Science and Natural Magic in Seventeenth Century England This is a fine cultural history of the body which takes Western and Eastern traditions and their texts quite seriously Smith views a history of the senses not only from below but places it squarely in the historical imagination It will be of interest to a wide range of readers Sander L Gilman author of Difference and Pathology

Untamed Gospel Martyn Percy, 2017-08-30 Untamed Gospel complements The Bright Field and Darkness Yielding and offers meditations reflections stories prayers and poems for use throughout the church year Each one focuses on the often startling nature of Jesus sayings and teachings the raw honesty of the psalms and other biblical texts and on contemporary issues such as mental health and displacement seen in the light of the demands of the kingdom of God A rich resource for worship preaching teaching and personal reflection throughout the year Untamed Gospel contains hundreds of reproducible items including seasonal reflections stories homilies poems and some of Jim Cotter s last writings as he was being treated for cancer a moving sequence of prayer poems inspired by the psalms
