Girl Power? Sarah Bellows-Blakely,2025-05-06 An examination of how when and why austerity capitalism and strands of feminism became intertwined and why girl focused programs have been at the heart of international policymaking Girl focused education programs have long been at the heart of international policymaking when girls access to education is ensured the reasoning goes they are more likely to turn into productive adults who can drive economic growth These ideas

combine strands of feminism and capitalism that have a specific and understudied origin In this book historian Sarah Bellows Blakely shows how a doctored study of girls education in East and Southern Africa led to the creation of international norms in the United Nations that would go on to guide policymaking on women s rights and economic growth promoting neoliberal feminist policy at the expense of other forms of gender based justice Focusing on the growth of free market feminism and girl focused economic development planning through the relationship between UNICEF and the Nairobi based NGO FEMNET Bellows Blakely reveals how their joint efforts set the blueprints for linked movements of economic development and women s rights that are still ongoing Through a narrative of the UNICEF FEMNET lobbying campaign Bellows Blakely shows how multiple contested girl focused visions of economic programming and gender justice became selectively erased in favor of an approach to global policy centered on the free market construction and strategic deployment of the African girl child

Warrior, Queen, Scientist, Activist Jan-Benedict Steenkamp, 2024-03-12 THIS BOOK TELLS the stories of twenty five women from the dawn of civilization to the present day who bent the arc of history by what they did at the defining moment in their lives At this critical juncture they had a choice taking the safe or least risky option or challenging the status quo They wielded the sword seized political power or challenged societal norms and laws and transformed society contrary to all cultural dictates Some women were virtual saints others were more ruthless than any man of their age One even instituted the first police state in history These women all faced enormous odds The social norms of their time were so pervasive and insular that every touchpoint in society bullied them as social media bullies women today especially those who dare to be different not for difference s sake but to make a difference in their brief time on this planet To the woman they responded to challenges setbacks and disappointments by redoubling their efforts We can learn from and be inspired by their lives and their grit and their mistakes To read their stories is to see ourselves anew The Rhetorical Legacy of Wangari Maathai

Alberto González, Eddah Mbula Mutua, Anke Wolbert, 2018-10-25 This book honors the advocacy of Dr Wangari Maathai acclaimed environmentalist and the first African woman to receive the Nobel Prize for Peace Dr Maathai was a gifted orator who crafted messages that imagined new possibilities for human agency and social justice and who inspired action to protect our natural habitats This collection explores the various strategies Maathai employed in her speeches to create memorable images and arguments for audiences in Kenya and around the world Specifically authors examine Maathai s use of storytelling her creative use of metaphor and local cultural knowledge and her use of sharp social political analysis Authors approach Maathai s rhetoric from both African and Western ways of knowing Gender Equality and Political Processes
