vi the information collected and discussed in this volume may help toward the achievement of such an objective. I should like to express my debt of gratitude to the authors who have contributed to this volume. Editing a work of this nature can strain long established personal relationships and I thank my various colleagues for bearing with me and responding sooner or later to one or several letters or telephone calls. My special thanks once again go to Mrs Joyce Johnson who bore the main brunt of this seemingly endless correspondence and without whose help the editorial and referencing work would have taken several years.
