

d. What did Chief Justice Burger say about the origins of executive privilege? How does this origin justify his decision about Nixon releasing the tapes?

The origins of executive privilege came from the constitution. The court is an interpreter of the constitution which means it is the court's responsibility to determine what the president can and can't do.

e. Explain Burger's statement, "A President and those who assist him must be free to explore alternatives in a way many would be unwilling to express except privately." How did the court interpret executive privilege?

His statement describes how the president has many different and more important secrets than the average person does. The court took that as the president with holding information that the court felt they needed to know.

f. Do you agree with this analysis that United States v. Nixon expanded the power of the presidency? Why or why not?

I do agree with the expanded power of the presidency. Being the president is probably one of the hardest jobs there is out there and the president can't always tell everyone everything.

h. Transcript of White House Tapes, June 25, 1972 – conversation between President Nixon and Chief of Staff H.R. Holtzman. (Nixon: Pat Gray is the Acting Director of the FBI, and Mark Hall is the Associate Director of the FBI. Malone is the Director of the CIA and Walters is the Deputy Director of the CIA)

a. Holtzman tells Nixon, "the FBI is not under control." Why does the FBI need to be controlled?

The FBI needed to be controlled because it was able to track money and trace it point right back to the president.

b. What is Nixon's plan for dealing with the FBI's investigation of the Watergate break-in?

Nixon did the best he could possibly do to delay the investigation.

c. What does this excerpt imply about the relationship between the FBI and the CIA?

It shows that they are competitive with each other.

d. What does this tape reveal about Nixon's view of his power as the president?

Nixon thought he had the power over all branches of government and could just force them into silence so they wouldn't be able to get him into any trouble.

e. Why is this tape called the "Smoking Gun" tape?

The tape was called a smoking gun because it revealed that Nixon was willing to spend money to prevent his secrets from getting out. This made him look even more guilty with his involvement with the scandal.
