The Case of Social Emotional Learning: Evidence-Based Practices Pedro Rosário ,Carmel Cefai,2024-09-20 At the end of the last century social emotional learning SEL emerged as a relevant theme in education all over the world What is SEL SEL may be defined as a multidimensional construct orchestrating individuals ability to identify and manage emotions feelings and concern for others as well as to organize and manage behaviors toward goals solve problems and develop positive relationships SEL has been gaining growing popularity among researchers and practitioners Still there is a reasonable degree of ambiguity regarding the concept In fact the term is often used as an umbrella for many types of programs and interventions from distinct areas such as school public health mental health or character education addressing the vulnerability of children and youth to various social and psychological problems What is more topics covered under the SEL umbrella are diverse as follows emotions cognition including multiple intelligences motivation socialization in schools and families and self regulation and its effects

Civic Engagement Pedagogy in the Community College: Theory and Practice Emily Schnee,Alison Better,Martha Clark Cummings,2015-11-19 This book will help post secondary educators to discover the joys and challenges of implementing theoretically grounded civic engagement projects on their campuses The essays on civic engagement and public scholarship are written by an interdisciplinary group of community college faculty who have designed and implemented civic engagement projects in their classrooms The projects they describe stand at the intersection of research theory and pedagogy They challenge dominant constructions of civic engagement as students bring their community culture and history into the classroom The authors consider the particular complexities and constraints of doing civically engaged teaching and scholarship at the community college level and situate their projects within current theoretical debates about civic engagement public scholarship and public higher education

Sex After Death Kathleen Sterling,2011-04-08 The old khaki jacket is frayed around the collar One of its straps is hanging loose The metal buttons that closed the front are tarnished and the wool lining is worn in places The Field and Stream label is grey from years of rubbing against the back of a neck Its various reporters pockets are empty now Its been around the world and back It smells of London Paris Prague and Rome It carries the scent of a hundred trips and a thousand memories But mostly it smells like Rodger The jacket made its last trip home in April I keep it under my pillow and make the bed around it I lay in the dark every night holding it to me Lonely shaky and scared I smell his smell and breathe him in Im doubled over the jacket holding on to this solid evidence that he was here This piece of him that was left behind Curled into a ball in the middle of the bed I keen Not mere crying but wrenching sobs I pull deep from my chest my legs between my legs Every part of me that loved him is aching with grief I cannot stop I went looking for a gun and found a vibrator They're both long thin and end with a bang I had decided that living alone I should have protection Rodger had a pistol somewhere buried in a closet We'd hidden it up and away when Katie was a baby But where I dug through the top shelves of my closet and found tons of old books some photos and my first communion veil No gun but a bag of gag gifts way in the back And lo and behold what fell out but a long narrow box At first I wasn't sure what it was but I turned it over and there in living color bright lime green was a dildo Given that the bag was filled with anti aging pills fake Viagra and the like I figured this was a remnant of a birthday gift to be given or received No clue But there it was I pulled the thing out of the box and turned it over It felt weird like well plastic It was sort of clammy but that may have been my imagination or the revolting green color I touched the end and the damn thing started buzzing I couldn't stop laughing Here I am fifty years old sitting alone in my bedroom with the Hulk's tool What the hell now Wild Card Jean
