Continuing Professional Development in Social Care Lynne Rutter, 2012-11-09 There has been a recent focus on how practitioners can engage with continuing professional learning and development This book is written to support and help busy social workers in front line practice as well as those in leadership and management roles to achieve the key aims of continuing professional development CPD in a post qualifying social work context There are sections on how to engage with CPD at an appropriate level understanding complex thinking and practices and developing professional reasoning and judgement that can be appropriately recognised and evaluated Working with Older People John Harris, Denise Tanner, 2007-10-11 Working with older people has become an increasingly important part of social work education and practice Whether studying community care adult services human growth and development or social work processes and interventions this book will be a vital source of information and help Working with Older People provides a framework of knowledge skills and values pertinent to qualifying social work courses and the new post qualifying award in Social Work with Adults including discussion of ideas about human development and theories of older age legislation social policy and social welfare skills for working with older people assessment and care planning partnership working Written by two experienced educators and practitioners this key text facilitates individual or group learning through features such as objectives for each chapter case studies and further reading suggestions There are numerous activities throughout the book and the final chapter contains pointers to consider for all of the activities It will be essential reading for social work students and qualified social workers Building a Modern Dementia Service Roger Bullock, 2002-12 The numbers of people with dementia continue to rise and it remains one of the major medical and social challenges facing society Unfortunately dementia services are generally under funded and are struggling to provide the comprehensive support needed by patients and their carers This new book addresses the requirements needed to set up a modern dementia service and offers ideas on how to assemble them in a way that is tailored to local demand It also outlines the development of the Dementia Action Team and is essential reading for all health professionals and managers involved in the care of patients with dementia

Rehabilitation of the Older Person Amanda J. Squires, Margaret B. Hastings, 2002 Readers will be able to gain knowledge of how to manage older people with difficult conditions and in different environments Much of the work of the professionals in this area has changed as a result of NHS reforms new practices and patient demands

Case Management of Long-term Conditions Janet Snoddon, 2010-01-05 The importance of appropriate and effective management of patient with long term chronic conditions cannot be underestimated Case Management of Long Term Conditions aims to provide all appropriate practitioners including nurses pharmacists physiotherapists and social care practitioners who might be involved in delivery of proactive case management with a practical understanding of how their knowledge and skills can be utilised to improve outcomes for people with chronic long term conditions The text contains some broad reflections on care and service delivery based on reviews of evidence and views from clinicians in the use of these skills and competencies to deliver improved outcomes for clients

Social Care Frances Sussex, Peter Scourfield, 2004 Covering all of the NVQ level 4 care core units this text includes actual examples followed by in depth questions and further research sections to aid the reader's understanding and knowledge of the subject

Understanding Health and Social Care Jon Glasby, 2012 New austerity measures have substantially changed the landscape for social and health care in the United Kingdom Fully updated to reflect key developments under the New Labour and Coalition governments this second edition of Understanding Health and Social Care provides an up to date guide to the increasingly important partnership between health and social care workers Jon Glasby combines practical information about welfare systems with key theoretical material to present a complete picture of these overlapping fields

Dimond's Legal Aspects of Nursing Richard A. Griffith, Bridgit Dimond, Iwan Dowie, 2019 Written specifically for student nurses as well as those already in practice Dimond's Legal Aspects of Nursing is your essential practical guide to the legal principles you need to be aware of in your everyday nursing practice Building on previous editions of the book by Bridgit Dimond this 8th edition has been significantly reworked by a new author team with extensive experience in teaching nursing law It has also been fully updated and revised in line with recent legal developments and the new Nursing standards to ensure it continues to meet the requirements of nursing law modules

All Our Welfare Peter Beresford, 2016-01-29 The UK welfare state is under sustained ideological and political attack It has also been undermined by accusations of paternalism and past failures to engage with the very people it is intended to help This unique book is the first to critique the past present and future welfare state from a participatory perspective Peter Beresford champion of user involvement draws on pioneering theories and practice of welfare service user movements to offer a blueprint for a new participatory social policy He controversially challenges orthodox social policy and the limitations of both Fabian and Neo liberal perspectives in engaging people to improve their own welfare drawing on service users own ideas and experience including fascinating vignettes from his own family s experience to demonstrate the value of user knowledge Filling a much needed gap in the literature this accessible text will provide a great introduction for students and a road map for practitioners of an alternative vision for a future participatory and sustainable social policy It will also command much wider interest from everyone concerned with how we look after each other in future in society
