The Rooms Chronicle, 2006 The Fissured Workplace David Weil, 2014-02-17 In the twentieth century large companies employing many workers formed the bedrock of the U S economy Today on the list of big business s priorities sustaining the employer worker relationship ranks far below building a devoted customer base and delivering value to investors As David Weil s groundbreaking analysis shows large corporations have shed their role as direct employers of the people responsible for their products in favor of outsourcing work to small companies that compete fiercely with one another The result has been declining wages eroding benefits inadequate health and safety protections and ever widening income inequality From the perspectives of CEOs and investors fissuring splitting off functions that were once managed internally has been phenomenally successful Despite giving up direct control to subcontractors and franchises these large companies have figured out how to maintain the quality of brand name products and services without the cost of maintaining an expensive workforce But from the perspective of workers this strategy has meant stagnation in wages and benefits and a lower standard of living Weil proposes ways to modernize regulatory policies so that employers can meet their obligations to workers while allowing companies to keep the beneficial aspects of this business strategy Effective Multi-Unit Leadership Chris Edger, 2016-04-29 There is a growing recognition of the increasing importance of local leadership practice within multi unit service contexts given the threat to costly land based retail infrastructures from smart technologies Multi site organizations are economically significant but currently under researched and poorly understood In Effective Multi Unit Leadership Chris Edger looks at that key managerial cohort in the retail hospitality and service sectors operating between the centre and unit the Multi Unit Leader MUL This district area or regional manager is tasked with maximising revenue and profit from a complex and ambiguous positional space being sandwiched between the centre and unit facing the MUL paradox how do they motivate unit managers and team members to provide great service whilst simultaneously fulfilling the Centre s compliance agenda Based on extensive case study research across a range of multi unit service organisations Edger advances an Integrated Model of MUL that elucidates how key activities sales led service systems and standards 3Ss are driven through behavioural practices commitment control and change 3Cs underpinned by MUL personal characteristics expertise emotional intelligence and energy 3Es Central to this model is the notion of portfolio optimisation through social exchange POSE where MULs apply local leadership leveraging their portfolios through the deft application of exchange based currencies Replete with case studies Effective Multi Unit Leadership will appeal to high potential unit managers existing multi unit leaders who want to improve their performance levels and retail service directors wishing to train and coach their direct reports as well as business educators and those with an academic interest in organisational studies
