War Trash Ha Jin:

War Trash Ha Jin, 2005 Captured by enemy forces Yu Yuan a Chinese army officer serving in Korea in 1951 takes on the role of interpreter due to his proficiency in English a role that places him in a conflict between his fellow prisoners and their captors

Ha Jin Marc Schumann, 2013-08-01 Ha Jin is a contemporary Chinese American poet and novelist who is most commonly associated with the Misty Poetry movement His contributions to the world of fiction have been awarded with such honors as the National Book Award and the Townsend Prize for Fiction This Guggenheim Fellow was a young child in China under communist rule and was only 14 years old when he became a member of the People's Liberation Army In this riveting book about this celebrated author critical analysis of his works are presented Your readers will engage deeply with this volume by learning how to identify themes analyze how elements in the text interact and how to identify the informational context behind the fictional treatment Jin uses with his chosen words 金（Ha Jin）, 2015-01-30

The Intimacies of Conflict Daniel Y. Kim, 2020-11-03 Winner 2020 Peter C Rollins Prize given by the Northeast Popular American Culture Association Enables a reckoning with the legacy of the Forgotten War through literary and cinematic works of cultural memory Though often considered the forgotten war lost between the end of World War II and the start of the Cold War the Korean War was as Daniel Y Kim argues a watershed event that fundamentally reshaped both domestic conceptions of race and the interracial dimensions of the global empire that the United States would go on to establish He uncovers a trail of cultural artefacts that speaks to the trauma experienced by civilians during the conflict but also evokes an expansive web of complicity in the suffering that they endured Taking up a range of American popular media from the 1950s Kim offers a portrait of the Korean War as it looked to Americans while they were experiencing it in real time Kim expands this archive to read a robust host of fiction from US writers like Susan Choi Rolando Hinojosa Toni Morrison and Chang rae Lee and the Korean author Hwang Sok yong The multiple and ongoing historical trajectories presented in these works testify to the resurgent afterlife of this event in US cultural memory and of its lasting impact on multiple racialized populations both within the US and in Korea The Intimacies of Conflict offers a robust multifaceted and multidisciplinary analysis of the pivotal but often unacknowledged consequences of the Korean War in both domestic and transnational histories of race

East-West Montage Sheng-mei Ma, 2007-11-06 East West Montage possesses a unique vision that promises to push discussions of globalization cultural production ethnic identity and bodily metaphors in powerful new directions Ma is to be praised for his sound scholarship and innovative interpretations Indeed where others specialize in either the collection of details or the unpacking of text Ma weaves a strong analytic exegesis rooted in thorough research Richard King Washington State University Approximately twelve hours difference lies between New York and Beijing The West and the East are literally night and day apart Yet East West Montage crosscuts the two in the manner of adjacent filmic shots to accentuate their montage like complementarity It examines the intersection between East and West the Asian diaspora or more specifically Asian bodies in diaspora and the cultural expressions by and about people of Asian descent on both sides of the Pacific Following the introduction Establishing Shots the book is divided into seven intercuts which in turn subdivide into dialectically paired chapters focusing on specific body parts or attributes The range of material examined is broad and rich the iconography of the opium den in film noir the writings of Asian American novelists the swordplay and kung fu film Japanese anime the Korean Wave including soap operas like Winter Sonata and the cult thriller Oldboy Rogers and Hammerstein s Orientalist musicals the comic Blackhawk the superstar status of the Dalai Lama and the demise of Hmong refugees and Chinese retirees in the U S Highly original and immensely readable East West Montage will appeal to many working in a range of disciplines including Asian studies Asian American studies cultural studies ethnic studies film studies popular culture and literary criticism

The Theological and the Political Mark Lewis Taylor, 2011 Princeton s Mark Lewis Taylor has always worked at the intersection of the political and theological Now in this intense and exciting work he explores in a systematic way how those two dimensions of human reality can be conceived anew and together Taylor argues that the decline of political discourse the justification of torture and preemptive war mass incarceration the misuse of religion to justify atrocity and most especially the sheer weight of suffering in the world all these developments urge us to reconceive theology itself In conjunction with the latest insights of political theory decolonial thought and spectral theories in contemporary philosophy Taylor suggests that the political is the context of the theological and a realm in which we can discern beyond simple categories of transcendence and immanence a transimmanence that is theologically illuminative and politically liberating Publisher description

Sound and Script in Chinese Diaspora Jing Tsu, 2011-01-15 What happens when language wars are not about hurling insults or quibbling over meanings but are waged in the physical sounds and shapes of language itself Native and foreign speakers mother tongues and national languages have jostled for distinction throughout the modern period The fight for global dominance between the English and Chinese languages opens into historical battles over the control of the medium through standardization technology bilingualism pronunciation and literature in the Sinophone world Encounters between global languages as well as the internal tensions between Mandarin and other Chinese dialects present a dynamic interconnected picture of languages on the move In Sound and Script in Chinese Diaspora Jing Tsu explores the new global language trade arguing that it aims at more sophisticated ways of exerting influence besides simply wielding knuckles of power Through an analysis of the different relationships between language standardization technologies of writing and modern Chinese literature around the world from the nineteenth century to the present this study transforms how we understand the power of language in migration and how that is changing the terms of cultural dominance Drawing from an unusual array of archival sources this study cuts across the usual China West divide and puts its finger on the pulse of a pending supranational world under literary governance

The Cambridge Companion to Transnational American Literature Yogita Goyal, 2017-02-15 This book provides a new map of American literature in the global era analyzing the multiple meanings of transnationalism The Cambridge Companion to Asian American Literature Crystal Parikh, Daniel Y. Kim, 2015-08-20 This Companion surveys Asian American literature from the nineteenth century to the present day Asia in the Old and New Cold Wars Kenneth Paul Tan, 2023-02-06 This is a collection of essays marking the 30th anniversary of the historic Cold War's formal conclusion in 1991. It enriches Cold War studies, a field dominated by Political Science, International Relations, and History, with insights from Sociology, Anthropology, Cultural Studies, and Film and Media Studies. Through critical analysis of newspaper and magazine articles, films, novels, art exhibits, museums, and other commemorative sites that engage with the themes of conflict, violence, trauma, displacement, marginalization, ecology, and identity, the book provides rich and diverse perspectives on the complex relationship between the historic Cold War and its legacies on the one hand, and on the other, their impact on Asia, its plural histories and peoples, and their shifting identities, ideological beliefs, and lived experiences. Today we often speak of an Asian century and witness intensifying concerns over new cold wars or Cold War 2.0. A United States in decline and a China on the rise create conditions for a new superpower rivalry, with a trade war already being fought between the two competitors. Russia continues to flex its geopolitical muscles, launching a full-scale invasion of neighbouring Ukraine in 2022, as its strongman leadership yearns nostalgically for the good old days of the USSR. As grand narratives and strategies of the Cold War jostle to make sense of high-level geopolitical events, this book descends to the level of lived experience, zooming in on ordinary and marginalized peoples whose lives and livelihoods have been affected over the decades by the Cold War and its legacies.

Far Eastern Economic Review, 2004-07 Asia's premier business magazine. The magazine reports on politics, business, economics, technology, and social and cultural issues throughout Asia, with a particular emphasis on both Southeast Asia and China. Encyclopedia of Asian-American Literature Seiwoong Oh, 2015-04-22 Presents a reference on Asian American literature, providing profiles of Asian American writers and their works. Biographical Dictionary of the People's Republic of China Yuwu Song, 2014-01-10 This biographical dictionary is an indispensable research tool for information about the prominent persons of the past seven decades in China. The book documents nearly 600 Chinese individuals who contributed for better or worse to the development of Chinese life and culture since the founding of the People's Republic of China in 1949. Though the book is weighted toward political figures, it includes persons in business, the military, academia, medicine, social movements, the arts, entertainment, and athletics. In addition to an objective description of the person's life, an analysis is provided that identifies the individual's contributions and importance. Encyclopedia of Military Science G. Kurt Piehler, 2013-07-24 The Encyclopedia of Military Science provides a comprehensive ready reference on the organization, traditions, training, purpose, and functions of today's military. Entries in this four-volume work include coverage of the duties, responsibilities, and authority of military personnel and an understanding of strategies and tactics of the modern military and how they interface with political, social, legal, economic, and technological factors. A large component is devoted to issues of leadership group dynamics motivation problem solving and decision making in the military context Finally this work also covers recent American military history since the end of the Cold War with a special emphasis on peacekeeping and peacemaking operations the First Persian Gulf War the events surrounding 9 11 and the wars in Afghanistan and Iraq and how the military has been changing in relation to these events Click here to read an article on The Daily Beast by Encyclopedia editor G Kurt Piehler Why Don t We Build Statues For Our War Heroes Anymore Speaking Face to Face Pedro J. DiPietro,2019-06-01 The first in depth analysis of the radical feminist theory and coalitional praxis of scholar activist Mar a Lugones Speaking Face to Face provides an unprecedented in depth look at the feminist philosophy and practice of the renowned Argentinian born scholar activist Mar a Lugones Informed by her identification as nondiasporic Latina and US Woman of Color as well as her long term commitment to grassroots organizing in Chicana o communities Lugones s work dovetails with while remaining distinct from that of other prominent transnational decolonial and women of color feminists Her visionary philosophy motivates transformative modes of engaging cultural others inviting us to create political intimacies rooted in a shared yearning for interdependence Bringing together scholars and activists across fields this volume charts her profound impact in and beyond the academy for the past thirty years In so doing it exemplifies a new method of coalitional theorizing traversing racial ethnic sexual national gendered political and disciplinary borders in order to cultivate learning embrace heterogeneity and provide a unique framework for engaging contemporary debates about identity oppression and activism Across thirteen original contributions authors address issues of intersectionality colonial and decolonial subjectivities the multiplicity and the colonality of gender indigenous spiritualities and cosmologies pluralist and women of color feminisms radical multiculturalism popular education and resistance to multiple oppressions The book also includes a rare interview with Lugones and an afterword by Paula Moya ultimately offering both new critical resources for longstanding admirers of Lugones and a welcome introduction for newcomers to her groundbreaking work This is an important contribution to Latinx studies Latina feminist philosophy queer studies and the burgeoning field of decolonial feminism a field that Lugones almost single handedly launched It is interdisciplinary but also a wonderful pedagogical resource It provides readers who are both familiar and unfamiliar with her work a thorough and judicious point of entry Eduardo Mendieta author of Global Fragments Globalizations Latinamericanisms and Critical Theory Talking to North Korea James Glyn Ford,2018-09-20 Despite recent attempts at negotiation the attitudes of both Kim Jong un s regime and the West seem unchanged North Korea is still shrouded in mystery and there are no clear plans for the future Can we trust either side to bring about peace And if so how This provocative insider s account blasts apart the myths which paint North Korea as a rogue state run by a mad leader Informed by extraordinary access to the country s leadership Glyn Ford investigates the regime from the inside providing game changing insights which Trump and his administration have failed to do Acknowledging that North Korea is a deeply flawed and repressive state he nonetheless shows that sections of the leadership are desperate to modernise and end their isolation With chapters on recent developments including the Trump Kim summit Ford supports a dialogue between East and West whilst also criticising Trump's facile attempts Talking to North Korea provides a road map for averting a war in North East Asia that would threaten the lives of millions 2006 Asian Americans Xiaojian Zhao,Edward J.W. Park Ph.D.,2013-11-26 This is the most comprehensive and up to date reference work on Asian Americans comprising three volumes that address a broad range of topics on various Asian and Pacific Islander American groups from 1848 to the present day This three volume work represents a leading reference resource for Asian American studies that gives students researchers librarians teachers and other interested readers the ability to easily locate accurate up to date information about Asian ethnic groups historical and contemporary events important policies and notable individuals Written by leading scholars in their fields of expertise and authorities in diverse professions the entries devote attention to diverse Asian and Pacific Islander American groups as well as the roles of women distinct socioeconomic classes Asian American political and social movements and race relations involving Asian Americans Arms and the University Donald Alexander Downs,Ilia Murtazashvili,2012-02-27 The gap between the U S military and society has widened in recent years posing problems for the constitutional order The gap is especially acute in major universities Arms and the University probes various dimensions of the tense relationship between the military and the university Developing and applying a theory of civic and liberal education this book shows how some military presence on campus can contribute to the diversity of ideas and the education of all students Bilingual Brokers Jeehyun Lim,2017-04-03 Reading Asian American and Latino literature Bilingual Brokers traces the shift in attitudes toward bilingualism in postwar America from the focus on cultural assimilation to that of resource management Interweaving the social significance of language as human capital and the literary significance of English as the language of cultural capital Jeehyun Lim examines the dual meaning of bilingualism as liability and asset in relation to anxieties surrounding new immigration and globalization Using the work of Younghee Kang Carlos Bulosan Amrico Paredes Maxine Hong Kingston Richard Rodriguez Changrae Lee Julia Alvarez and Ha Jin as examples Lim reveals how bilingual personhood illustrates a regime of flexible inclusion where an economic calculus of one's value crystallizes at the intersections of language and racial difference By pointing to the nexus of race capital and language as the focal point of postwar negotiations of difference and inclusion Bilingual Brokers probes the faultlines of postwar liberalism in conceptualizing and articulating who is and is not considered to be an American
