

Georgia Department of Audits and Accounts Performance Audit Operations

Russell Hinson, State Auditor
John Abbey, Director

Why we did this review

The objective of this audit was to assess the internal controls associated with the Purchasing Card Program to ensure questionable transactions are either prevented or detected. An ineffective internal control environment could potentially allow fraudulent or improper transactions to occur.

Who we are

The Performance Audit Operations Division was established in 1971 to conduct in-depth reviews of state programs. The purpose of these reviews is to determine if programs are meeting their goals and objectives; provide measurements of program results and effectiveness; identify other means of meeting goals; evaluate the efficiency of resource allocation; and assess compliance with laws and regulations.

State Purchasing Card Program

The state's Purchasing Card Program lacks the internal controls necessary to safeguard the Program from fraudulent and improper purchases.

What we found

Our review found that: (1) DOAS has not established comprehensive guidelines regarding agencies' use of purchasing cards (p-cards) and (2) that agencies have not implemented adequate internal controls to identify and prevent the misuse of p-cards by their employees. During our audit, we identified a number of employees who appear to have used the state purchasing card for personal gain. Such misuse includes purchasing Visa debit cards to pay personal loans, purchasing gifts for themselves and co-workers, paying personal car insurance premiums, and paying debt collection agencies. As a result of our audit and subsequent investigation, four individuals from two state colleges have been referred to the state's Attorney General for prosecution.

Overall, we found the following specific deficiencies in the Purchasing Card Program:

- ✗ inadequate policies and procedures governing the use of p-cards;
- ✗ inadequate training provided to users of p-cards;
- ✗ inadequate training of p-card approving officials;
- ✗ p-cards issued to persons with little or no need for the cards;
- ✗ p-cards not issued to/used by specific individuals;
- ✗ p-card approving officials have an excessive number of p-cards to review;
- ✗ inappropriate persons designated as p-card approving officials;
