

HOW TO END AN ESSAY

Conclusion is supposed to be short and sweet, it is an underrated part of an essay

To persuade the reader with your arguments

A proper link between the introduction and the conclusion of an essay can prove to be extremely fruitful

Linking your ideas or arguments to a context that is completely different

Briefly summarize the important points

Signaling the end of the essay in a unique manner

Keep the conclusion short and sweet

Write the statement in a straightforward manner

Try to end the essay with a hint of irony to make it more provocative

Avoid fluffy language such as "firstly," "secondly,"

An idea suddenly pops into your mind and you have completed the essay, resist the urge to include it in conclusion

Looking at the big picture and summarizing the essay as a whole

While writing the conclusion is to reverse the introduction in the most creative possible manner
