Territories of Empire Andy Doolen, 2014-06-27 In contrast to later imperial pursuits in Mexico Cuba and the Philippines the early United States extended its boundaries through less sensational modes of territorialization land deals slavery expansion treaty diplomacy immigration and settlement and the addition of new states on the border Never the exclusive top down product of any single strategic plan empire building relied rather on a hazy ever shifting boundary between state and non state action Territories of Empire examines the border writings of U S explorers politicians travelers novelists merchants newspapermen and other eye witnesses to the rapid expansion of the United States in the aftermath of the Louisiana Purchase It traces how different authors and texts imagined the relations between nation state and border and reveals how continental ambitions were achieved through the uneven and unpredictable process of territorialization Andy Doolen looks to writings as dissimilar as Kentucky newspaper accounts of the Aaron Burr conspiracy the explorer Zebulon Pike s 1810 account of making peace with the Santee Sioux before becoming terribly lost near the upper Rio Grande and Timothy Flint s 1826 novel about a young New Englander who fights in the Mexican independence struggle in showing how national sentiments were galvanized in support of greater territorial and commercial growth To this end Doolen makes clear how both private citizens and government officials collectively authored the spatial logic of a continental republic Combining textual analysis with theories of transnationalism and empire Territories of Empire reconstructs the development of a continental imaginary highly attuned to the objectives of U S imperialism while often betraying an unsettling awareness of resistance and diversity beyond the border

The Womanist Idea Layli Maparyan, 2012-03-22 Following on the heels of The Womanist Reader The Womanist Idea offers a comprehensive systematic analysis of womanism including a detailed discussion of the womanist worldview cosmology ontology epistemology logic axiology and methodology and its implications for activism From a womanist perspective social and ecological change is necessarily undergirded by spirituality as distinct from religion per se which invokes a metaphysically informed approach to activism

The Emerging Markets Century Antoine van Agtmael, 2008-09-04 A new breed of powerhouse companies from the emerging markets is catching their Western competitors off guard Household names of today IBM Ford Wal Mart are in danger of becoming has beens as these more innovative superstars rise to dominance representing both an urgent competitive challenge and an unprecedented investment and business opportunity Understanding how they have become world class market leaders and where they are going next is crucial to an understanding of the future of globalization Training his brilliant investor s eye on the top twenty five of these emerging market companies visionary international investment analyst Antoine van Agtmael takes readers into the boardroom suites and labs where they are outmanoeuvring their Western competitors He reveals how these companies have made it to the top of the global heap profiling major players such as China's Haier appliance manufacturer Korea's Samsung Brazil's Embraer jet maker and India's Infosys Divulging their strategies for future growth he analyses how their rise to prominence will change our lives His unique insights reveal both how we in the West can capitalize on the opportunities these companies represent while also mobilizing a powerful response to the challenges they present The Korean Automotive Industry, Volume 2 A.J. Jacobs, 2023-08-24 This volume chronicles the maturation of the South Korean auto industry and its native automakers from the 1997 Asian Crisis to 2019 After examining the context for domestic vehicle production in South Korea the author presents multiple case studies for all five Korean automakers General Motors Korea Daewoo Motors Kia Hyundai Ssangyong and Renault Samsung This includes coverage of Hyundai Kia's foreign plants in North America Europe India China and Emerging Asia The book closes by assessing the five to ten year future outlooks for Korean automakers at home and abroad This important work will prove informative to scholars of business management automotive history international development Asian studies and public administration China's Development and Harmonization Bin Wu, Shujie Yao, Jian Chen, 2013-08-21 The concept of harmonization has become very popular in China with the Chinese government increasingly applying the term harmonious society to internal affairs and the term harmonious world to international relationships Harmonization as both an end and a means of China's development is deeply rooted in China's cultural tradition which emphasizes moderation balance and harmony between human beings and nature between different social groups and between the Chinese and other nationalities This book examines the experience of enacting the concept of harmonization in China in recent years It explores this in terms of developments within Chinese society economic developments and changes in business practices environmental challenges and coping strategies and changing patterns of international relations Throughout it discusses the gaps between rhetoric and reality policy and practice Love and Empire Felicity Amaya Schaeffer, 2012-12-03 The spread of the Internet is remaking marriage markets altering the process of courtship and the geographic trajectory of intimacy in the 21st century For some Latin American women and U.S. men the advent of the cybermarriage industry offers new opportunities for re-making themselves and their futures overthrowing the common narrative of trafficking and exploitation In this engaging stimulating virtual ethnography Felicity Amaya Schaeffer follows couples romantic interludes at Vacation Romance Tours in chat rooms and interviews married couples in the United States in order to understand the commercialization of intimacy While attending to the interplay between the everyday and the virtual Love and Empire contextualizes personal desires within the changing global economic and political shifts across the Americas By examining current immigration policies and the use of Mexican and Colombian women as erotic icons of the nation in the global marketplace she forges new relations between intimate imaginaries and state policy in the making of new markets finding that women's erotic self-fashioning is the form through which women become ideal citizens of both their home countries and in the United States Through these little explored highly mediated romantic exchanges Love and Empire unveils a fresh perspective on the continually evolving relationship between the U S and Latin America Black and Indigenous Mark David Anderson,2009 Garifuna live in Central America primarily Honduras and the United States Identified as Black by others and by themselves they also claim indigenous status and rights in Latin America Examining this set of paradoxes Mark Anderson shows how on the one hand Garifuna embrace discourses of tradition roots and a paradigm of ethnic political struggle On the other hand Garifuna often affirm blackness through assertions of African roots and affiliations with Blacks elsewhere drawing particularly on popular images of U S blackness embodied by hip hop music and culture Black and Indigenous explores the politics of race and culture among Garifuna in Honduras as a window into the active relations among multiculturalism consumption and neoliberalism in the Americas Based on ethnographic work Anderson questions perspectives that view indigeneity and blackness nativist attachments and diasporic affiliations as mutually exclusive paradigms of representation being and belonging As Anderson reveals within contemporary struggles of race ethnicity and culture indigeneity serves as a normative model for collective rights while blackness confers a status of subaltern cosmopolitanism Indigeneity and blackness he concludes operate as unstable often ambivalent and sometimes overlapping modes through which people both represent themselves and negotiate oppression

Urban Indigeneities Dana Brablec,Andrew Canessa,2023-09-19 Today a majority of Indigenous peoples live in urban areas they are builders and cleaners teachers and lawyers market women and masons living in towns and cities surrounded by the people and pollution that characterize life for most individuals in the twenty first century Despite this basic fact the vast majority of studies on Indigenous peoples concentrate solely on rural Indigenous populations Aiming to highlight these often overlooked communities this is the first book to look at urban Indigenous peoples globally and present the urban Indigenous experience not as the exception but as the norm The contributing essays draw on a wide range of disciplines including sociology anthropology architecture land economy and area studies and are written by both Indigenous and non Indigenous scholars The analysis looks at Indigenous people across the world and draws on examples not usually considered within the study of indigeneity such as Fiji Japan and Russia Indigeneity is often seen as being authentic when it is practiced in remote rural areas but these essays show that a vigorous vibrant and meaningful indigeneity can be created in urban spaces too The book challenges many of the imaginaries and tropes of what constitutes the Indigenous and offers perspectives and tools to understand a contemporary Indigenous urban reality As such it is a must read for anyone interested in the real lives of Indigenous people today Contributors Aiko Ikemura Amaral Chris Andersen Giuliana Borea Dana Brablec Andrew Canessa Sandra del Valle Casals Stanislav Saas Ksenofontov Daniela Peluso Andrey Petrov Marya Rozanova Smith Kate Stevens Kanako Uzawa

management has developed as a research discipline over the last century until the early 1990s there was essentially no acknowledgement that the human spirit plays an important role in the workplace Over the past twenty years the tide has begun to turn as evidenced by the growing number of courses in academia and in corporate training and an exponential increase in the publications emerging through creative interaction of scholars and practitioners in organizational behaviour workplace diversity sustainability innovation corporate governance leadership and corporate wellness as well as contributions by psychotherapists theologians anthropologists educators philosophers and artists This Handbook is the most comprehensive collection to date of essays by the preeminent researchers and practitioners in faith and spirituality in the workplace featuring not only the most current research and case examples but visions of what will be or should be emerging over the horizon It includes essays by the people who helped to pioneer the field as well as essays by up and coming young scholars Among the questions and issues addressed What does it mean to be a spiritual organization How does this perspective challenge traditional approaches to the firm as a purely rational profit maximizing enterprise Is faith and spirituality in the workplace a passing fad or is there a substantial shift occurring in the business paradigm How does this field inform emerging management disciplines such as sustainability diversity and social responsibility In what ways are faith and spirituality in the workplace similar to progressive and innovative human resource practices Does faith and spirituality in the workplace bring something additional to the conversation and if so what The aim of The Handbook of Faith and Spirituality in the Workplace is to provide researchers faculty students and practitioners with a broad overview of the field from a research perspective while keeping an eye on building a bridge between scholarship and practice

Humans, Other Beings and the Environment Munyaradzi Mawere, 2015-10-05 Humans Other Beings and the Environment is an ethnographic study of the possibilities for the mutual symbiotic co existence of human beings a unique species of forest insects and natural forests The result of extensive fieldwork conducted over a period of thirteen months the book highlights the continuum among humans wild insects and environmental conservation outcomes in a specific environment of southeastern Norumedzo in rural Zimbabwe In this respect it describes interactions and relationships between humans other beings and the natural forests to demonstrate how some aspects of the emerging body of literature in the posthumanities and relational ontologies can work to grasp the collaborative interactional space for different social actors in the cosmos through which cognitive and knowledge communities can be extended Furthermore the book raises critical questions for conservation sciences political ecology and environmental anthropology as it demonstrates the extent of relevance and application of the Norumedzo conservation case study with particular regard to conservational problems and asymmetrical relations between humans and other beings in other scenarios in Zimbabwe and beyond Complicating many assumptions about knowledge production nature and culture the book offers independent and critical insights into the interpretation of modernist science posthumanist ideas and indigenous epistemologies and relates these to existing studies As such it will be of interest not only to anthropologists but also to political scientists environmentalists and policy makers in Zimbabwe southern Africa and beyond
