Pick the Solution to the Problem

There are steps we can take when solving a problem that will help us. Remember, small problems we can handle ourselves pretty quickly, but big problems need help from an adult.

Problem

You bought a new dress at the mall but you didn't try it on. When you got home, it was too small for you.

You forgot your cell phone on the school bus.

You really want to ask someone to the dance but when you try, you chicken out.

You took the wrong book to class and you have an in book assignment to complete.

You are in the school play and you are having trouble remembering your lines.

Solution to the Problem

Ask an adult to bring you back to the mall to return it and try on a new size.

Ask to go back to your locker to get the right book.

Go to the office and ask for help contacting the bus driver.

Ask an adult for help and practice in the mirror over and over.

Ask an adult for help. Rehearse what to say with them and then practice while you are alone.

Draw an arrow to match a box on the left with a box on the right.
