Midwest Book Review: Elaine has spent her sixteen years proving that she's nothing like her murderous father, but no one will let her forget her dark family history. So when her best friend Talia is missing, Elaine takes the search and rescue into her own hands. But on her quest, Elaine crosses through a portal and into a vast, pristine wilderness. She finds herself in an alien world filled with strange wildlife, sprawling forests, deep caves, and immense danger. And Elaine's the only person in it. Her phone has no bars. There's no Facebook. 911 is useless. As if that's not bad enough, she failed summer camp. And there are the creatures underground, ready to come out and hunt as soon as night falls. In order to survive and rescue her friend from them, Elaine may have to embrace her dark family history after all. The story continues in Found, 2 Flamestone Trilogy, and concludes with Freed, 3 Flamestone Trilogy. A companion novel, Light, is also available outside of this set.

Top 8 (The Top 8 Trilogy, Book 1) Katie Finn, 2010-10-01. Social networking sites are THE place to be for today's teens; this fun, juicy novel explores the ups, downs, and scandals of a group of friends online. Madison MacDonald is seriously freaking out. Madison MacDonald, 16. Putnam. CT. Status: Single. About Me: Everything in my life was working out. I had my three best friends, a brand new boyfriend, and the lead in the school play. Aside from that history paper I hadn't started, things felt perfect. Then I returned from spring break to find my Friendverse profile hacked. Someone clearly out to ruin me had spilled the most damaging secrets AND posted the worst photos of me ever taken online.

The American Dream and American Cinema in the Age of Trump Graham S. Clarke, Ross Clarke, 2022-07-28 The American Dream and American Cinema in the Age of Trump uses both film theory and insights from object relations theory in order to examine how recent films address and reflect the state of the American Dream This fascinating book looks at how the American Dream is one of the organising ideas of American cinema and one of the most influential cultural outputs of the twenty first century at a time of internal crisis In an era characterised by populism climate change and economic uncertainty the book considers nine auteur films in how they illustrate the challenges of contemporary America Graham S Clarke and Ross Clarke present a bifocal perspective on some of the most well received American films of recent years and how they relate to the American Dream in the context of the Trump presidency For each of the nine films discussed two different accounts are presented side by side so that each film is considered from an object relations psychoanalytic point of view internal world as well as a film and cultural theory perspective external world This unique approach is complemented by discussion of political and critical theory providing a thorough and engaging analysis Challenging and insightful The American Dream and American Cinema in the Age of Trump will be of great interest to scholars of cinema popular culture American studies and psychoanalytic studies
