No Lands Man:

No Land's Man Aasif Mandvi, 2014-11-04 The actor shares a heartfelt collection of humorous essays that explore his myriad identities Indian Muslim British and American The Boston Globe My father moved our family to the United States because of a word It was a word whose meaning fascinated him It was a singularly American word a fat word a word that could only be spoken with decadent pride That word was Brunch The beauty of America he would say is they have so much food that between breakfast and lunch they have to stop and eat again from International House of Patel If you're an Indo Muslim British American actor who has spent more time in bars than mosques over the past few decades turns out it's a little tough to explain who you are or where you are from In No Land's Man Aasif Mandvi explores this and other conundrums through stories about his family ambition desire and culture that range from dealing with his brunch obsessed father to being a high school age Michael Jackson impersonator to joining a Bible study group in order to seduce a nice Christian girl to improbably becoming America's favorite Muslim Indian Arab Brown Doctor correspondent on The Daily Show with Jon Stewart This is a book filled with passion discovery and humor Mandvi hilariously and poignantly describes a journey that will resonate with anyone who has had to navigate his or her way in the murky space between lands Or anyone who really loves brunch Best Comedy Books of 2014 selection by The Washington Post Praise for No Land's Man I was enthralled Mandvi writes beautifully and comedically about his life with wonderful dialogue and revealing detail reminiscent of David Sedaris Jonathan Ames author of Wake Up Sir It always bothered me that Aasif was more than merely funny he's also a great actor Now I've learned he's an amazing storyteller as well and I am furious but also grateful Aasif's movement between cultures and genres is what makes him and his story singularly funny poignant and essential John Hodgman author of The Areas of My Expertise and More Information Than You Require Aasif is my favorite Indo Muslim British American Daily Show correspondent ever I loved No Land's Man Jim Gaffigan author of Dad Is Fat and Food A Love Story A lighthearted but heartfelt portrait of Mandvi's childhood and his struggles to come to terms with his rather complicated life The Boston Globe
