No Place Like Home C.J. Janovy, 2018-01-15 Far from the coastal centers of culture and politics Kansas stands at the very center of American stereotypes about red states In the American imagination it is a place LGBT people leave No Place Like Home is about why they stay The book tells the epic story of how a few disorganized and politically naive Kansans realizing they were unfairly under attack rolled up their sleeves went looking for fights and ended up making friends in one of the country s most hostile states The LGBT civil rights movement s history in California and in big cities such as New York and Washington DC has been well documented But what is it like for LGBT activists in a place like Kansas where they face much stiffer

headwinds How do they win hearts and minds in the shadow of the Westboro Baptist Church Christian motto God Hates Fags Traveling the state in search of answers from city to suburb to farm journalist C J Janovy encounters LGBT activists who have fought in ways big and small for the acceptance and respect of their neighbors their communities and their government Her book tells the story of these twenty first century citizen activists the issues that unite them the actions they take and the personal and larger consequences of their efforts however successful they might be With its close up view of the lives and work behind LGBT activism in Kansas No Place Like Home fills a prairie sized gap in the narrative of civil rights in America The book also looks forward as an inspiring guide for progressives concerned about the future of any vilified minority in an increasingly polarized nation

No Place Like Home Christopher Carrington,2009-01-14 In this rich surprising portrait of the world of lesbian and gay relationships Christopher Carrington unveils the complex and artful ways that gay people create and maintain both homes and chosen families for themselves Carefully separating stereotype from reality Carrington investigates family in the gay and lesbian community Relying upon interviews and observation the author analyzes the loves and routings of 52 diverse lesbian gay and bisexual couples in the Bay area He closes the work with a discussion of the raging same sex marriage debate and posits an enlightened solution to this dilemma Library Journal No Place Like Home

Gary Younge,2002 In 1961 13 black and white people the Freedom Riders tested the ban on segregation in interstate travel by going together from Washington to New Orleans This is the account of a young black Briton following their route in the late 1990s There's No Place Like Home Jean Studebaker,2011-06-29 In the 1950 s and 60 s Kansas farm life meant milking cows gathering eggs and butchering hogs and steers It meant raising a garden preparing meals from scratch sewing clothes and churning butter It meant living close to the earth It was a special time when children could wander the pastures and fields without fear and come home dirty after a day of hard play and harder work Farmers produced much of what they needed to live and were almost completely self sufficient Farm life was basic simple and sweet and family was the most important thing There s No Place Like Home is the story of a Kansas farm family It is the unique story of life in a different time and place before technology and automation changed how things are done on the farm It was a time when a farm life was a family project and everyone contributed A collection of anecdotes and oral histories this story includes the tales of a childhood on a Kansas farm in the mid 20th century and the joys and regrets for generations of such a life It is the story of a life on the Kansas prairie a celebration of the land and people of Kansas and a re telling of the histories of one family recounted around the kitchen table It tells of the struggles hopes and disappointments of life in a simpler time and place

No Place Like Home Sara W. Lindsey,2015-03-31 Katie Thomas had been living all alone for 5 years in the big city of Chicago after graduating from college She had become a self assured confident young woman after leaving trials and tragedies behind in her small hometown of Alton Indiana Her mother had pleaded with her to come home for an extended stay and she had finally decided to spend summer break there Even though she wanted to spend time with her mother she did not want to revisit the bitterness that she knew she would face when she returned to Alton Little did she know that her visit could quite possibly change her life forever During her time in Alton she would reconnect with God and the love of her life Would she be able to find it in her heart to forgive others and God Could she move beyond past tragedies and feel comfortable in Alton again No Place Like Home Linda Weltner,1990 Speaks of memories contained within the rooms of the author s home by the sea and provides quiet glimpses into the intricacies of everyday life No Place Like Home Kerry Wilkinson,2016-11-03 A festive homecoming takes a dangerous turn in No Place Like Home by bestselling author of the Jessica Daniel series Kerry Wilkinson Featuring an exclusive first look at the upcoming Jessica Daniel novel Nothing But Trouble Craig Macklin was a teenager when his headteacher told him he was heading to either prison or the grave Instead Craig left the north of England saying goodbye to his friends and family to start a new life Thirteen years on redundant and separated from his wife he returns for the first time It s Christmas markets in full swing lights twinkling shoppers shopping revellers revelling Manchester has seen a revolution The buildings soar higher the shopping centres sprawl wider New industries have replaced old and yet away from the glitter the tinsel the hot spiced cider and the enormous inflatable Santa some things will never change Amid the season there are secrets from which he cannot escape and when debt collectors attack his parents house Craig realizes the teenage hell raiser he left behind might not be so buried after all No Place Like Home Peter Mares,2018-09-17 More than a million lower income households in Australia pay above the affordability benchmark for their housing costs More than 100 000 people are homeless Seventy per cent of us are concerned we ll never own property Yet owning a home is still seen by most Australians as an essential part of our way of life It is generally accepted that Australia is in the grip of a housing crisis But we are divided along class generational and political lines about what to do about it Award winning journalist Peter Mares draws on academic research statistical data and personal interviews to create a clear picture of Australia s housing problems and to offer practical solutions Expertly informed and eminently readable No Place Like Home cuts through the noise and asks the common sense questions about why we do housing the way we do and what the alternatives might be Peter Mares is an independent writer and researcher He is a contributing editor with the online magazine Inside Story a senior moderator with the Cranlana Programme and an adjunct fellow in the Centre for Urban Transitions at Swinburne University Peter was a broadcaster with the ABC for twenty five years serving as a foreign correspondent based in Hanoi and presenting national radio programs His 2016 book Not Quite Australian How Temporary Migration Is Changing the Nation was shortlisted in the NSW Premier s Literary Awards No Place Like Home doesn t just crunch numbers convincingly It shows us through the compelling stories of people affected by the housing crisis how the whole fabric of our society is threatened if we cannot fairly address this fundamental human need for shelter Age Measured and compassionate Mares writes simply and clearly about complex issues and policies and avoids the sensationalism and bombast with which they are frequently handled in the media Australian Peter Mares gives a lucid

overview of Australia's housing crisis This book offers a timely discussion of an increasingly urgent and complex problem Accessible and sympathetic No Place Like Home should kick off some serious policy debates and will appeal to the general reader Books Publishing One of the most important books published in Australia in 2016 An impressive account of one of the biggest scandals in contemporary Australia how we've sleepwalked into a policy environment that encourages the systemic exploitation of an underclass of millions of temporary migrants in our country Tim Watts on Not Quite Australian Mares is indefatigable in his data gathering and scrupulously even handed in weighing the evidence He strikes an exquisite balance between the personal and scholarly the humane and tough mindedness Not Quite Australian is big picture storytelling with a pulse always keeping ideals blunt realities and people the exposed who want a place and the lucky ones entrenched here in the frame Australian on Not Quite Australian Compellingly readable Mares research is comprehensive intellectually deft ethically and philosophically grounded but digestible and personally attested This is on the ground people focused journalism of the highest kind Sydney Morning Herald on Not Quite Australian This detailed careful and topical book is illuminated by the personal stories of individuals and families caught up in a complex and bureaucratic system and it leaves a lasting impression of an Australia that is becoming a two tiered country Powerful and persuasive Overland on Not Quite Australian
