The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik, 2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre s beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre s development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story

The Harmony of the Soul: Sigfrid Karg-Elert's Letters "To His Australian Friends" Harold Fabrikant,2010
Sigfrid Karg Elert was an important composer in the first decades of the 20th century He was however largely ignored as a composer in his native Germany until the 1960s but it was the English speaking world which discovered him in the early 1900s and realised that he was one of the most important organ composers of his era Arthur Nickson was a leading Australian born musician initially trained in Melbourne and later in London This book contains the letters from a bilateral correspondence which started cautiously formally in 1913 it was interrupted by the Great War but recommenced in 1923 Nickson shared these letters with few others Many had no idea of their content until the collection was published for the first time solely in an English translation in 1996 This is now the second edition of that same work in which some translations are revised more extensive annotations provided and the entire original German text reproduced Pinky Wesley Hall,2005-02

Dalrymple also responds to some of the common assertions set forth by Christian Zionists Many might still ask Why should I care about what happens in Israel and Palestine The fact is that we must care And we must alert the Church that we must care Too much is at stake We have Christian brothers and sisters throughout the Middle East in general and in the Holy Land in particular who have been directly impacted by our theological opinions As a result the Church cannot be silent It must not be silent Federal Register ,1992-01-12 ThirdWay ,1986-01 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Smith, Marx, & After Ronald Lindley Meek,2013-12-01 Memories Will G.
