

The Marketing Audit - A Broad Template for you to follow.

1. Category Analysis

- What market are you operating within? Get to know it intimately!
- Size your market - this may be accurate with market data, or a best estimate. Consider growth and any relevant segmentation of the total market or category.
- Estimate market trends, such as industry developments, introduction of new technology or new products, legal factors, increased spending by competitors.
- Calculate your share of market or sub segment, and your competitors. This will help you when setting your vision, goals and objectives.
- Forecast where your market segment is moving and estimate sales and % shares for the next financial period. Ideally always plan 3 years out.

2. Target Audience

- Consider the target customer of your market segment - Identify and describe current customers.
- Identify and describe your prospect customers.
- Consider their lifestyle, demographics, interests, how they consume media etc. The more that you can know about your customer, the more targeted and therefore successful your marketing activities will be.
- Where you are really trying to get to is the wants and needs of your target customers
- In depth analysis of customers could be using free resources, but very often will need some purchased market research

Sample Marketing Audit Report:

Marketing Research Report, 1959 Marketing Michael John Baker, 2001 Report on Irregularities in the Marketing of Grain United States. General Accounting Office, 1976 Marketing Briefs: A Revision and Study Guide Sally Dibb, 2012-08-21

Complementing Dibb and Simkin's established reputation in their field, this text presents a punchy overview of the leading 50 themes of marketing, each concisely summarized for revision purposes or quick learning. While appealing primarily to students undertaking marketing exams, many practitioners will also find this glossary of current marketing hard to resist. The title builds on the earlier works of Dibb and Simkin whose Houghton Mifflin text Marketing Concepts and Strategies is the current business school market leading text in the United Kingdom, while their Thomson Learning text The Marketing Casebook: Cases and Concepts has just been revised and is the most widely used marketing casebook. From understanding customers, branding and positioning, relationship marketing, social responsibility, through to value based marketing and one to one marketing, this book covers all the issues the modern marketer must address. The text itself is organized into short structured chapters, the Briefs, each including Core definitions, A bulleted key point overview, Thorough yet concise explanation of the concept and primary issues, Illustrative examples, A selection of examination style case essay and applied questions, Recommended further reading and sources. Together these offer a rounded, concise and topical appreciation of each theme within a clear and accessible framework designed to aid revision. Also included are revision tips and golden rules for tackling examinations, specimen examination papers with answer schemes and a full glossary of key marketing terms.

Tourism Management Arch G. Woodside, Drew Martin, 2007-12-18

Planning and implementing successful tourism programmes requires in-depth predictions of tourist behaviour. This title provides coverage of sense-making, planning, implementing, evaluating and administering tourism marketing and management programmes. It offers useful descriptions, tools and examples of tourism management decision-making.

Marketing the Museum Fiona Mclean, 2012-12-06

Marketing the Museum is the ideal guide to the ways in which museums can overcome the numerous hurdles on the route to truly achieving a marketing orientation. The history of the museum is one of shifting purposes and changing ideals, and this volume asks if it is possible to define the product which the modern museum can offer. This book explores the crucial question: Are the theories of marketing developed for manufactured goods in any way relevant to the experience of visiting a museum? In covering one of the most highly disputed issues in the field, this book is essential reading for museum professionals, students and anyone who has dealings in the many branches of the heritage industry around the world.
