The causes of the American Revolution

Have you ever wondered why the American Revolution happened? Well, it all started with the British and the American colonists not agreeing on a lot of things. The colonists were upset with the British for making them follow new rules and laws without asking them. Let's find out what caused the American Revolution.

Firstly, the colonists were angry that the British would not let them have their own government. They wanted to be able to make their own laws and rules. The British said that they had to follow the rules of the British government. This was not fair to the colonists.

Secondly, the colonists were angry that the British were taking away their rights. They wanted to be able to have their own government and to be able to make their own laws. The British said that they had to follow the rules of the British government. This was not fair to the colonists.
