Identified Flying Objects Dr. Michael P. Masters, 2019-03-22 Could UFOs and Aliens simply be us but from the future This provocative new book cautiously examines the premise that extraterrestrials may instead be our distant human descendants using the anthropological tool of time travel to visit and study us in their own hominin evolutionary past Dr Michael P Masters a professor of biological anthropology specializing in human evolutionary anatomy archaeology and biomedicine explores how the persistence of long term biological and cultural trends in human evolution may ultimately result in us becoming the ones piloting these disc shaped craft which are likely the very devices that allow our future progeny to venture backward across the landscape of time Moreover these extraterrestrials are ubiquitously described as bipedal large brained hairless human like beings who communicate with us in our own languages and who possess technology advanced beyond but clearly built upon our own

These accounts coupled with a thorough understanding of the past and modern human condition point to the continuation of established biological and cultural trends here on Earth long into the distant human future

Virginia Woolf, Literary Materiality, and Feminist Aesthetics Amber Jenkins, 2023-09-01 This book interrogates the relationship between the material conditions of Woolf's writing practices and her work as a printer and publisher at the Hogarth Press In bringing to light her embodied literary processes from drafting and composition to hand printing and binding this study foregrounds the interactions between Woolf's modernist experimentation and the visual and material aspects of her printed works By drawing on the field of print culture as well as the materialist turn in Woolf scholarship it explores how her experience in print book design and publishing underlines her experimental writing and how her literary texts are conditioned by the context of their production This book therefore provides new ways of reading Woolf's modernism in the context of twentieth century print material and visual cultures By suggesting that Woolf's work at the Hogarth Press sensitized her to the significant role the visual aspects of a text play in its system of representation it also considers the extent to which materiality informs both her work as well as her engagement with Bloomsbury formalist aesthetics which often exaggerate the distinction between visual and verbal modes of expression
