With reference to the invoice copy attached, I am writing this letter to you to let you know that on April 18, 2015, I placed an order for the lot of 100 pieces of eye shadow kit of your brand. The order was received timely to me. I must appreciate to you for this. But after I opened, I found the 78 kits to be broken of four shade colors.

I am sending the order back to you and rejecting the order placed by me as a result of defective pieces of delivery.

I want you to let me know within one week, whether you are going to remit my payment or will replace the defective pieces of order. I would like you to know that I intend to file a case against you if my claim is not going to be settled somehow.

Waiting for your timely response.
