Prof. Dr Mohd Farid Shamsudin,Assoc. Prof. Dr Affendy Abu Hassim,2023-10-22 This book is dedicated to all PhD candidates in social sciences preparing for their viva examination We wish you all the success in this important milestone in your academic journey We hope this book will provide practical advice and strategies to help you answer viva questions effectively and confidently May you find this book a valuable resource in your preparation and benefit from it     Library Literature ,1934 An index to library and information science     Assessing the Viva in Higher Education Stephen Dobson,2017-08-24 This book makes the case for a revival in interest in the viva As an oral assessment of a treatise or dissertation or of a student s performance in art or dance the viva has a long history dating back to the time of the Greeks It can be found today in the form of professional vocational and academic vivas where a judgment of oral performance is required to gain entry into a profession or community of scholars In a time when there are scandals about students selling essays to other students the viva provides a fertile ground for probing the student to see whether they are in fact the authors of the work being assessed and know its content and how to think cognitively or otherwise Given that we actually know so little about the viva the book theorises the viva based on a unique sample of vivas that have been filmed or in which the author himself has been participant and discusses why its format is so different in Anglo Saxon languages and Latin and other languages The book offers educational policy makers and examiners a trade off between arguments in support of the viva and the demand for other ever more cost effective forms of assessment as the numbers of both undergraduate and postgraduate students threaten to increase It also argues that with demand in the labour market for qualified graduates who are better equipped with transferable skills such as the ability to communicate complex ideas verbally in a competent well argued fashion and not merely through the use of rhetoric what appear to be cost effective forms of assessment in the short run e g written exams with standardised questions or multiple choice may actually in the long run be of less value if we are investing in a future workforce with so called 21st century communication skills If the viva were abandoned the student would be robbed of the opportunity to stage a defence
