

Counseling and Restatement of Expectations	Counseling and Restatement of Expectations Counseling by the immediate supervisor is the initial step to mentor or coach performance. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meet with the staff member and affirm expectations regarding performance. • Discuss the performance deficit or behavioral concern. • Provide a timeline and resources for improvement. • Report consequences for no improvement. • Document for an anecdotal file.
Written Reprimand	Written Reprimand At this time, the immediate supervisor may want to consult a Human Resources representative. After an investigation, follow the procedure outlined above for the counseling process, with the exception of providing documentation to the employee in a letter of reprimand. The letter should outline previous informal efforts and the current problem. Send copies of the signed letter to the department personnel file, proper University authority, and the respective Union, if applicable.
Short Suspension (or Equivalent)* Long Suspension (or Equivalent)*	Suspension or Equivalent Fully investigate the concern, followed by discussion with the employee. Summarize previous progressive discipline and the current problem, and specify the timeframe for suspension in writing. Identify further discipline and possible termination as a potential consequence for not meeting and maintaining standards for improvement. Provide copies as for the written reprimand.
Termination	Termination Termination may be necessary when discipline is not successful in improving performance. Review the work history and record of progressive discipline with proper University authority. Schedule a final meeting with the employee and conduct a meeting at which a letter of termination is provided. If necessary, the termination notice may be sent via certified mail. Provide copies as for previous disciplinary measures.

Occupational Therapies without Borders - Volume 2 Frank Kronenberg, Nick Pollard, Dikaaios Sakellariou, 2011-10-24. The companion text to Occupational Therapy without Borders Volume 1, learning from the spirit of survivors. In this landmark text, writers from around the world discuss a plurality of occupation based approaches that explicitly acknowledge the full potential of the art and science of occupational therapy. The profession is presented as a political possibilities based practice concerned with what matters most to people in real life contexts, generating practice based evidence to complement evidence based practice. As these writers demonstrate, occupational therapies are far more than as some critical views have suggested, a monoculture of practice rooted in Western modernity. Nobel Peace Laureate Desmond Tutu captures the ethos of this book which essentially calls for engagements in the service of a purpose that is larger than the advancement of our profession's interests. Your particular approach to advancing our wellbeing and health strikes me as both unique and easily taken for granted. Whilst you value and work with medical understandings, your main aim seems to go beyond these. You seem to enable people to appreciate more consciously how what we do to and with ourselves and others on a daily basis impacts on our individual and collective wellbeing. As occupational therapists, you have a significant contribution to make, allowing people from all walks of life to contribute meaningfully to the wellbeing of others. Links philosophy with practical examples of engaging people in ordinary occupations of daily life as a means of enabling them to transform their own lives. Includes contributions from worldwide leaders in occupational therapy research and practice. Describes concrete initiatives in under served and neglected populations. Looks at social and political mechanisms that influence people's access to useful and meaningful occupation. Chapters increase diversity of contributions geographically.

culturally and politically Emphasis on practice education and research maintains academic credibility A glossary and practical examples in nearly every chapter make text more accessible to students
