

Hamlet* Essay Topics

AP Literature and Composition

Choose ONE of the essay options and write a well-developed essay that fully responds to the prompt, including appropriate textual evidence and citations. Remember, when you cite a play you should use this format: (Act.scene.lines) Ex: (Liv.82-85).

This is due on Friday, December 5. Please type, double-space your essay, and submit it to Turnitin.com. Your heading, in MLA format, should clearly indicate which prompt you have chosen.

Essay Option A:

The most important themes in literature are sometimes developed in scenes in which a death or deaths take place. Write a well-organized essay in which you show how a specific death scene helps to illuminate the meaning of the work as a whole. Focus on analysis and avoid mere plot summary.

Essay Option B:

One of the strongest human drives seems to be a desire for power. Write an essay in which you discuss how a character in Hamlet struggles to free himself or herself from the power of others or seeks to gain power over others. Be sure to demonstrate in your essay how the author uses this power struggle to enhance the meaning of the work. Focus on analysis and avoid mere plot summary.

Essay Option C:

In some works of literature, a character who appears briefly, or does not appear at all, is a significant presence. Choose a novel or play of literary merit and write an essay in which you show how such a character functions in the work. You may wish to discuss how the character affects action, theme, or the development of other characters. Focus on analysis and avoid mere plot summary.

Essay Option D:

One definition of madness is “mental delusion or the eccentric behavior arising from it.” But Emily Dickinson wrote “Much madness is divinest Sense — To a discerning Eye—” Novelists and playwrights have often seen madness with a “discerning Eye.” Consider Hamlet, in which a character’s apparent madness or irrational behavior plays an important role. Then write a well-organized essay in which you explain what this delusion or eccentric behavior consists of and how it might be judged reasonable. Explain the significance of the “madness” to the work as a whole. Focus on analysis and avoid mere plot summary.

Religious Experience Craig Martin, Russell T. McCutcheon, 2014-09-11

Many regard religious experience as the essence of religion arguing that narratives might be created and rituals invented but that these are always secondary to the original experience itself However the concept of experience has come under increasing fire from a range of critics and theorists This Reader presents writings from both those who assume the existence and possible universality of religious experience and those who question the very rhetoric of experience Bringing together both classic and contemporary writings the Reader showcases differing disciplinary approaches to the study of religious experience philosophy literary and cultural theory history psychology anthropology feminist theory as well as writings from within religious studies The essays are structured into pairs with each essay separately introduced with information on its historical and intellectual context The ultimate aim of the Reader is to enable students to explore religious experience as rhetoric created to authorize social identities The book will be an invaluable introduction to the key ideas and approaches for students of Religion as well as Sociology and Anthropology CONTRIBUTORS Robert Desjarlais
