The Aids Generation Stories Of Survival And Resilience:

The AIDS Generation Perry N. Halkitis, 2014 The AIDS Generation documents the lived experiences of HIV positive gay men who are presently middle aged long term survivors of HIV AIDS Through the use of ethnography and life history interviews the book delineates the resiliencies that these fifteen long term survivors have demonstrated in coping with a life threatening disease throughout the course of their adult lives

The AIDS Generation Perry N. Halkitis, 2014 The AIDS Generation Stories of Survival and Resilience takes readers on the real life journeys of gay men who were infected with HIV as young men and have survived to enter middle age The book examines the tumultuous life paths of these men and the strategies they used to survive the epidemic

RecordCovid19 Kristopher Lovell, 2023-08-21 RecordCovid19 Historicizing Experiences of the Pandemic provides insights into the experience of the Covid19 pandemic from an historical and sociological perspective Using the first hand testimonies submitted as part of the RecordCovid19 project as its inspiration the chapters in this edited collection explore and contextualise the initial responses to the Covid19 pandemic The collection examines people s relationships with Covid19 as an historical event including their own experiences of living through history their relationship with their surroundings including their relationships with family the soundscapes and the emotional environments of a pandemic world the impact and tone of political rhetoric including the use and misuse of wartime myths and language in the United Kingdom and finally what lessons can be learnt from how people discuss their own personal stories and what lessons can we draw from previous examples of storytelling in moments of crisis The result is a fascinating and rich discussion derived from an archive full of idiosyncratic experiences of life changing during the Covid19 pandemic

Making A Spectacle Megan Ruby, Michelle Angelo-Rocha, Mark Hickey, Vonzell Agosto, 2020-10-01 This book edition offers a collection of scholarship and reflections that goes beyond theoretical conversations This volume helps reignite a dialogue not only by scholars but also by educators activists and students who believe in inclusive and equal access to education for all individuals regardless of race ethnicity immigration status gender sexuality religion and other identities In this volume the authors examine curriculum and pedagogy as a tool for recovery from political trauma and healing They used this as an opportunity to confront some of the politically shameful situations affecting educational environments homes neighborhoods enclaves and regions marked by socioeconomic inequality The authors of Making a Spectacle present wide open questions How are educators and school leaders learning to interact with one another students their families and community while facing increased mass school shootings police violence racial profiling unequal access to education and basic needs during a pandemic COVID 19 and other forms of sociopolitical stress influenced by discrimination institutional racism and White nationalism What curricular and pedagogical geographies are educators and students afforded through which to process their emotional responses to ecological or political activities witnessed in schools and their surrounding areas These chapters and reflections perspectives represent a diversity of positionalities within critical intersections of power and privilege as they relate to identity culture and curriculum and social justice schools and society Interviews as Activated Storytelling Amir B. Marvasti, Jaber F. Gubrium, 2025-05-30 Challenging the sanitized view of participants in standardized surveys Interviews as Activated Storytelling contends that interviewing is a meaning making process producing useful but context sensitive knowledge Through a series of case studies the book illustrates that participants are not simply there for asking and answering but inquire and respond in terms of attendant interests and social worlds Interview interaction and interpretation must take these into account against standardization In two parts chapters explore how conditions of the interview process contexts and conceptions of interview participants subjectivities narratively inform and shape activate interviewing and its results Together with the previously published book Crafting Ethnographic Fieldwork Sites Selves and Social Worlds insights into the full range of procedural issues in qualitative research are offered Social Work Practice with the LGBTQ Community Michael P. Dentato, 2018 This text broadly examines many important aspects of effective and affirming practice methods with the LGBTQ community along with considering health mental health history and policy factors The content was written by social work scholars educators practitioners and students to reach across professions e g social work health mental health and across audiences e g students faculty researchers and practitioners

Queer Aging Jesus Ramirez-Valles, 2016 The aging of gay men is as revolutionary as the gay liberation and AIDS movements were With the aging of Baby Boomer generation we are witnessing a new phenomenon gay men entrance to old age This is transforming our views of old age the composition of LGBTQ communities and the field of gerontology Queer Aging timely addresses the question What is like to be an older gay man It brings the stories and the voices of a diverse group of men to uncover the aging experience and examine how race AIDS and age together are shaping the lives of these men Living with Health Inequalities Anne Rogers, David Pilgrim, 2023-11-30 This book explores how people encounter understand live with and respond to health risks associated with social economic and political inequality Complementing a traditional public health approach the book moves beyond a focus on categories of morbidity and their structural causes Instead it focuses on everyday understandings and actions for people living in unequal social conditions Making use of a variety of case studies related to physical and mental health the authors emphasise interpersonal relationships biographical meanings and the daily tactics of getting by These are recurrently linked to the social structural aspects of particular times and places The book Draws upon applies and extends the biopsychosocial approach which is well known to students of public health Respects and gives due weight to the experience in context of people who live with health inequalities in domestic and local settings Explores notions of personal agency and the contingencies of everyday life in order to offer a focused psycho social compliment to a public health tradition dominated by top down reasoning This is an important read for all those seeking to understand the complexities of health inequalities holistically in their studies research and practice The book brings together thinking in the fields of public health sociology mental health and social policy The Open Access version of

There Was No Alternative Jeff Gomez, 2023-04-06 Grunge Flannel Generation X In 1993 Seattle was the capital of the world Nirvana was king and slackers were everywhere When the Red Hot organization a group of activists dedicated to raising money and awareness of AIDS released their third compilation CD featuring the biggest bands of the era Soundgarden Smashing Pumpkins Beastie Boys The Breeders Nirvana and more it quickly became the touchstone of a generation Rolling Stone called No Alternative a jaw dropping compilation of musical gems This book takes a look back at what happened to the bands involved with No Alternative It includes new interviews with the musicians and others behind the record and chronicles the downfall of an industry the taming of a devastating illness and the arrival of another global pandemic It's about growing up saying goodbye and proving once more that you can't go home again even if that's where you left all of your CDs

Act Up! Rita Santos, 2018-12-15 The prejudice of the U.S. government and medical community allowed a disease that could have been contained to spread into a global pandemic Readers will follow this devastating disease from its recently refuted origins in gay communities all the way to the current medical developments This book will also describe how a powerful LGBTQ activist movement diverted its attention to the wreckage caused by the HIV and AIDS crisis of the 1980s and 90s The history of disease is one that commonly receives too little attention in curricula yet it has a huge impact on the development of our society

HIV/AIDS Kathy Furgang, 2015-07-15 More than three decades after its emergence HIV/AIDS remains a powerful threat and killer throughout much of the world However over the years we have come a long way in our understanding of this global epidemic This volume surveys the history of HIV/AIDS preventative measures that can be taken to curb its spread and treatment options that can be pursued by those infected Although there is still no cure readers will learn that through responsible behavior proper treatment and support those infected or at risk of becoming infected can help limit the potentially devastating effects of this insidious STD

No Kids Allowed Michelle Ann Abate, 2020-10-13 Children's literature isn't just for children anymore This original study explores the varied forms and roles of children's literature when it's written for adults What do Adam Mansbach's *Go the F*ck to Sleep* and Barbara Park's MA There's Nothing to Do Here have in common These large format picture books are decidedly intended for parents rather than children In No Kids Allowed Michelle Ann Abate examines a constellation of books that form a paradoxical new genre children's literature for adults Distinguishing these books from YA and middle grade fiction that appeals to adult readers Abate argues that there is something unique about this phenomenon Principally defined by its form and audience children's literature Abate demonstrates engages with more than mere nostalgia when recast for grown up readers Abate examines how board books coloring books bedtime stories and series detective fiction written and published specifically for adults question the boundaries of genre and challenge the assumption that adulthood and childhood are mutually exclusive

The Healing Power of Community Lusijah Marx, Graham Harriman, Robin McCoy Brooks

Brooks,2024-07-04 The Healing Power of Community offers a diverse cross section of interdisciplinary and depth psychological perspectives in support of using mutual aid approaches in all levels of group and community practice as a remedy for individualism and social and political divisions centering social justice Written by three distinct voices who collaborated at the height of the AIDS crisis the book begins with an autoethnographic study of Project Quest an HIV AIDS clinic established in 1989 before looking at how the lessons learnt from this clinic can be applied to our current global mental health climate Filled with clinical and theoretical applications chapters include content on what mutual aid communities are rethinking professionalism and boundaries in a crisis healing collective trauma group psychotherapy psychodrama depth psychology and how mental health professionals can support radical change of key structures in nonprofit clinics public administration private practice and research Arguing for their approach of radicalizing mental health and community based practice today the book examines how this can be achieved by moving beyond individual level approaches creating new frameworks to meet the mental health needs of our era in creative ways This book is designed to engage clinical social workers and mental health care clinicians working in community based mental health as well as those involved in community psychology collective trauma and grief HIV AIDS advocacy policy making and political advocacy Bringing Psychotherapy to the Underserved

Jeffrey Zimmerman,Jeffrey E. Barnett,Linda Frye Campbell,2020 Bringing Psychotherapy to the Underserved will focus on the massive challenge of making psychotherapy available to underserved often marginalized populations both within and outside the United States HIV, Sex and Sexuality in Later Life Mark Henrickson,Casey Charles,Shiv Ganesh,Sulaimon Giwa,Kan Diana Kwok,Tetyana Semigina,2024-05-21 Drawing on international perspectives and research this book explores the experiences of sex and sexuality in individuals and groups living with HIV in later life 50

The '80s Resurrected Randy Laist,2023-03-10 The 1980s is remembered as a time of big hair synthetic music and microwave cookery It is also remembered as the heyday of conservative politics socioeconomic inequality and moral panics It is dichotomously remembered as either a nostalgic age of innocence or a regressive moral wasteland depending on who you ask and when But most of all it is remembered In retro fashion trends in 80s based film and television narratives and through countless rebooted movies video games superheroes and even political slogans imploring us to Make America Great Again Again More than merely a historical period the 80s has grown into a contested myth ever evolving through the critical and expressive lens of popular culture This book explores the many shapes the 80s mythos has taken across a diverse array of media Essays examine television series such as Stranger Things Cobra Kai and POSE films such as Dallas Buyers Club Summer of 84 and Chocolate Babies as well as video games pop music and toys Collectively these essays explore how representations of the 1980s influence the way we think about our past our present and our future The Corona Generation Jennie Bristow,Emma Gilland,2020-11-27 One of the UK s leading sociologists of generation uses both her scholarship and her ability to write beautifully to give meaning to the experience of Spring and Summer 2020 Professor Ellie

Lee Director of the Centre for Parenting Culture Studies University of Kent It is already clear that the COVID 19 crisis will have huge social and economic implications The Corona Generation considers its effect on the generation currently coming of age the demographic currently known as Generation Z A generation that was already considered to be teetering on the brink of an uncertain political economic and environmental future now finds itself entering an adulthood in which nothing can be taken for granted where continuous crisis management is already presented as the new normal Aging Invisibly

,2024-09-16 Statistical data suggest that many people with chronic health conditions pass away at much younger ages than their peers Yet large quantitative datasets that address aging with chronic illness often do not capture the diversity of people with chronic diseases and their experiences of growing older The assumptions built into many core data resources on aging often erase the journeys of people occupying marginalized social locations Likewise these same assumptions can result in omission of people who survive for long amounts of time while managing conditions with relatively short median life expectancies These barriers to understanding diverse experiences of aging with chronic illness are endemic but not unique to quantitative research Qualitative data collection can indeed offer richer insight into both of these intersecting sets of aging experiences However even more in depth approaches to inquiry with smaller groups of people require asking questions that explicitly explore and affirm the diversity of identities and health statuses held by older adults A more constructive and impactful approach to capturing meaningful data on diverse experiences of aging with chronic disease is thus to focus on affirming study architecture rather than viewing one particular set of methods as a panacea for exclusion With this new edited volume the editors support the broader goal of expanding knowledge on diverse trajectories of aging with chronic health conditions Contributed chapters range from critical reviews to methods primers to empirical investigations The authors focus synergistically on amplifying the attributes and experiences of diverse social populations and on highlighting journeys of longevity with chronic disease Contributors are Nicholas B DiCarlo Angela Hunt Ian M Johnson Nat Jones Kristen D Krause Nik M Lampe Ginny Natale Audria LB Kirsten Ostergren Clark Manacy Pai Michele Wise Wright and Terry Gene Wright Heavy Burdens Bridget Eileen Rivera,2021-10-26 Religious faith reduces the risk of suicide for virtually every American demographic except one LGBTQ people Generations of LGBTQ people have been alienated or condemned by Christian communities It s past time that Christians confronted the ongoing and devastating effects of this legacy Many LGBTQ people face overwhelming challenges in navigating faith gender and sexuality Christian communities that uphold the traditional sexual ethic often unwittingly make the path more difficult through unexamined attitudes and practices Drawing on her sociological training and her leadership in the Side B Revoice conversation Bridget Eileen Rivera who founded the popular website Meditations of a Traveling Nun speaks to the pain of LGBTQ Christians and helps churches develop a better pastoral approach Rivera calls to mind Jesus s woe to religious leaders They tie up heavy burdens hard to bear and lay them on the shoulders of others but they themselves are unwilling to lift a finger to move them Matt 23 4 Heavy Burdens provides
