Visual Imagery, Metadata, and Multimodal Literacies Across the Curriculum August, Anita, 2017-08-10 A student's learning experience can be enhanced through a multitude of pedagogical strategies. This can be accomplished by visually engaging students in classroom activities. Visual Imagery Metadata and Multimodal Literacies Across the Curriculum is a pivotal reference source that examines the role of visual-based stimuli to create meaningful learning in contemporary classroom settings. Highlighting a range of relevant topics such as writing composition, data visualization, and literature studies, this book is ideally designed for educators, researchers, professionals, and academics interested in the application of visual imagery in learning environments. Elijah Muhammad and Supreme Literacy Lydia Magras

Muhammad, 2022-03-08 Elijah Muhammad and the Supreme of Literacy explores how Elijah Muhammad framed the term literacy as contrasted with its generally known definitions and applications. The text frames a construct for understanding why Elijah Muhammad considered the science of literacy essential to the success of the Blackman and woman in America specifically and people in general. It outlines the scriptural foundations of Muhammad's teachings drawn from both Bible and Qur'an. A detailed review of the course of study prescribed for his followers supplies Elijah Muhammad's unique perspective on both literacy and language. Examples of his study curricula are offered. A brief history of Muhammad's own educational process is presented with an emphasis on the pedagogy of literacy as practiced by Muhammad's teacher W D Fard. Material on the early educational focus of The Nation of Islam is introduced. And finally, general commentary on the teachings is made known through the lenses of three men in their role as teachers: W D Fard, teacher of Elijah Muhammad, Muhammad himself, and Minister Louis Farrakhan, student of Elijah Muhammad. Metadiscourse in Digital

Communication Larissa D'Angelo, Anna Mauranen, Stefania Maci, 2021-12-15 In this book, a solid and emerging group of international researchers contributes to the theory of metadiscourse and to our understanding of the role metadiscourse and related meta-phenomena may play in digital forms of communication. Providing examples of new research methods and approaches, the authors investigate progressively hybridized academic and non-academic genres that have migrated from analogue to digital format. The book offers valuable insights on how digital communication has changed today's communication environments and provides examples of research methods needed to capture that change. This volume will be appreciated by scholars and graduate students interested in linguistics, corpus linguistics, and metadiscourse. Subject

The English Cult of Literature William R. McKelvy,2007

What constitutes reading This is the question William McKelvy asks in The English Cult of Literature Is it a theory of interpretation or a physical activity a process determined by hermeneutic destiny or by paper ink hands and eyes McKelvy seeks to transform the nineteenth century field of Religion and Literature into Reading and Religion emphasizing both the material and the institutional contexts for each In doing so he hopes to recover the ways in which modern literary authority developed in dialogue with a politically reconfigured religious authority The received wisdom has been that England s literary tradition was modernity s most promising religion because the established forms of Christianity wounded in the Enlightenment inevitably gave up their hold on the imagination and on the political sphere Through a series of case studies and analysis of a diverse range of writing this work gives life to a very different story one that shows literature assuming a religious vocation in concert with an increasingly unencumbered freedom of religious confession and the making of a reading nation In the process the author shifts attention away from the idea of the literary critic in favor of considering the historic role of religious
