Symbolism 21 Florian Klaeger, Klaus Stierstorfer, Marlina Tronicke, 2021-10-25 Special Focus Law and Literature This special focus issue of Symbolism takes a look at the theoretical equation of law and literature and its inherent symbolic dimension The authors all approach the subject from the perspective of literary and book studies foregrounding literature's potential to act as supplementary to a very wide variety of laws spread over historical geographical cultural and spatial grounds The theoretical ground laid here thus posits both literature and law in the narrow sense The articles gathered in this special issue analyse Anglophone literatures from the Renaissance to the present day and cover the three major genres narrative drama and poetry The contributions address questions of the law s psychoanalytic subconscious copyright and censorship literary negotiations of colonial and post colonial territorial laws the European refugee debate and migration narratives fictional debates on climate change contemporary feminist drama and classic 19th century legal narratives This volume includes two insightful analyses of poetic texts with a special focus on the fact that poetry has often been neglected within the field of law and literature research Special Focus editor Franziska Quabeck Westfälische Wilhelms Universität Münster Germany

The Body and the Book, 2015-06-29 The stimulating mix of academics and practising poets that have contributed to this volume provides an unusual and illuminating integration of critical and creative practice and a vibrantly diverse approach to questions of poetry and sexuality Each section of essays is complemented by poems which creatively illustrate or develop the theme with which the essays critically engage Rather than being limited to a specific genre tradition time or place this collection seeks to make a virtue of contrast comparison and juxtaposition The collection is arranged into sections that range broadly across the thematic ground of dichotomies traditions and revisions microscopic and macroscopic perspectives women and embodiment and the notion of play and performance Positioning eighteenth century tinkers ballads alongside medieval Hebrew lyrics and the Blues of Gorgeous Puddin or making Dionysus rub shoulders with Sharon Olds and Mrs Rochester provides new perspectives on familiar material and valuable insights into more obscure work and the nature of sensual poetry as a mode of expression As the editors suggest the essays and poems presented collectively argue that writings about sexuality are always already about the way poets see and represent our bodies the world and poetic language itself
