H. Foertmeyer,2004-03 On the east face of the Canyon del R o Hondo there is an ancient cave known to the Mescal Indians as Moon Cave It is a sacred place to the Mescal used for the Ceremony of the Ancients a ceremony performed every five years rewarding the five most honored braves for their bravery and honesty The ceremony must take place in Moon Cave because that is where the great medicine man Owan atan created the magic The reward the braves receive is the opportunity to go back in time to live among their ancestors in the old way of life This is a great honor and the fact that there is no way back to their former lives is of no relevance to the selected braves But what does this mean to Denny Miller who innocently enters Moon Cave during the 2004 ceremony and finds himself suddenly living in 1874 And what does this mean to Scott Franklin Denny s best friend who is determined to find out what happened to his vanished friend and help him if he can Scott coerces Cha tah wa a local Mescal shaman into taking him back to 1874 to search for Denny and the adventure begins A Trial of Witches Ivan Bunn,Gilbert Geis,2005-11-04 In 1662 Amy Denny and Rose Cullender were accused of witchcraft and in one of the most important of such cases in England stood trial and were hanged in Bury St Edmunds A Trial of Witches is a complete account of this sensational trial and an analysis of the court procedures and the larger social cultural and political concerns of the period In a critique of the official process the book details how the erroneous conclusions of the trial were achieved The authors consider the key participants in the case including the judge and medical witness their institutional importance their part in the fate of the women and their future careers Through detailed research of primary sources the authors explore the important implications of this case for the understanding of hysteria group mentality social forces and the witchcraft phenomenon as a whole A Man Apart Peter Forbes,Helen Whybrow,2015-02-03 A story of friendship encouragement and the quest to design a better world A Man Apart is the story part family memoir and part biography of Peter Forbes and Helen Whybrow s longtime friendship with Bill Coperthwaite A Handmade Life whose unusual life and fierce ideals helped them examine and understand their own Coperthwaite inspired many by living close to nature and in opposition to contemporary society and was often compared to Henry David Thoreau Much like Helen and Scott Nearing who were his friends and mentors Coperthwaite led a 55 year long experiment in living on a remote stretch of Maine coast There he created a homestead of wooden multistoried yurts a form of architecture for which he was known around the world Coperthwaite also embodied a philosophy that he called democratic living which was about empowering all people to have agency over their lives in order to create a better community The central question of Coperthwaite s life was How can I live according to what I believe In this intimate and honest account framed by Coperthwaite s sudden death and brought alive through the month long adventure of building with him what would turn out to be his last yurt Forbes and Whybrow explore the timeless lessons of Coperthwaite s experiment in intentional living and self reliance They also reveal an important story about the power and complexities of mentorship the opening of one s life to someone else to learn together and carrying on in that person s physical absence While mourning Coperthwaite s death and coming to understand the real meaning of his life and how it endures through their own Forbes and Whybrow craft a story that reveals why it s important to seek direct experience to be drawn to beauty and simplicity to create rather than critique and to encourage others
