Wideen, Peter P. Grimmett, 2013-05-13 Pressures for reform in teacher education have begun to take on the same sense of urgency as school reform Those faculties of education who have been strong advocates for change in the schools now find themselves the subject of similar pressures from governmental policy makers Attempts at change have taken place in many different countries and jurisdictions around the world This book details through a series of international vignettes how teachers are responding to the changing times and social contexts in which they do their work The authors hold the view that changes are inevitable in teacher education but what is not clear is who will control the changes and whether the end result will actually improve the preparation of teachers The theme of the book is that the reform of teacher education should be informed by intelligent debate and that any attempt to restructure teacher preparation should result from a careful reconceptualisation of its purposes and processes Handbook of Latin American Studies Dolores Moyano Martin,P. Sue Mundell,1997-12-01

Beginning with volume 41 1979 the University of Texas Press became the publisher of the Handbook of Latin American Studies the most comprehensive annual bibliography in the field Compiled by the Hispanic Division of the Library of Congress and annotated by a corps of more than 130 specialists in various disciplines the Handbook alternates from year to year between social sciences and humanities The Handbook annotates works on Mexico Central America the Caribbean and the Guianas Spanish South America and Brazil as well as materials covering Latin America as a whole Most of the subsections are preceded by introductory essays that serve as biannual evaluations of the literature and research underway in specialized areas The Handbook of Latin American Studies is the oldest continuing reference work in the field Dolores Moyano Martin of the Library of Congress Hispanic Division has been the editor since 1977 and P Sue Mundell has been assistant editor since 1994 The subject categories for Volume 55 are as follows Anthropology including Archaeology and Ethnology Economics Electronic Resources for the Social Sciences Geography Government and Politics International Relations Sociology Inventing Indigenism Natalia Majluf,2021-11-23 One of the outstanding painters of the nineteenth century Francisco Laso 1823 1869 set out to give visual form to modern Peru His solemn and still paintings of indigenous subjects were part of a larger project spurred by writers and intellectuals actively crafting a nation in the aftermath of independence from Spain In this book at once an innovative account of modern indigenism and the first major monograph on Laso Natalia Majluf explores the rise of the image of the Indian in literature and visual culture Reading Laso's works through a broad range of sources Majluf traces a decisive break in a long history of representations of indigenous peoples that began with the Spanish conquest She ties this transformation to the modern concept of culture which redefined both the artistic field and the notion of indigeneity As an abstraction produced through indigenist discourse an icon of authenticity and a densely racialized cultural construct the Indian would emerge as a central symbol of modern Andean nationalisms Beautifully illustrated Inventing Indigenism brings the work and influence of this extraordinary painter to the forefront as it offers a broad perspective on the dynamics of art and visual culture in nineteenth century Latin America Revisiting Education in the New Latino Diaspora Edmund Hamann,Stanton Wortham,Enrique G. Murillo,2015-04-01 For most of US history most of America's Latino population has lived in nine states California Arizona New Mexico Colorado Texas Illinois Florida New Jersey and New York It follows that most education research that considered the experiences of Latino families with US schools came from these same states But in the last 30 years Latinos have been resettling across the US attending schools and creating new patterns of inter ethnic interaction in educational settings Much of this interaction with this New Latino Diaspora has been initially tentative and improvisational but too often it has left intact the patterns of lower educational success that have prevailed in the traditional Latino diaspora Revisiting Education in the New Latino Diaspora is an extensive update with all new material of the groundbreaking volume Education in the New Latino Diaspora Ablex Publishing that these same editors produced in 2002 This volume consciously includes a number of junior scholars e g C Allen Lynn Soria Colomer Amanda Morales Rebecca Lowenhaupt Adam Sawyer and more established ones Frances Contreras Jason Irizarry Socorro Herrera Linda Harklau as it considers empirical cases from Washington State to Georgia from the Mid Atlantic to the Great Plains where rural suburban and urban communities start their second or third decades of responding to a previously unprecedented growth in newcomer Latino populations With excuses of surprise and improvisational strategies less persuasive as Latino newcomer populations become less new this volume considers the persistence the anomie and pragmatism of Latino newcomers on the one hand with the variously enlightened paternalistic dismissive and xenophobic responses of educators and education systems on the other With foci as personal as accounts of growing up as an adoptee in a mixed race family and the testimonio of a successful undocumented college graduate to the macro scale of examining state level education policies and with an age range from early childhood education to the university level this volume insists that the worlds of education research and migration studies can both gain from considering the educational responses in the last two decades to the newish Latino presence in the 41 U S states that have not long been the home to large well established Latino populations but that now enroll 2.5 million Latino students in K 12 alone Timely and compelling Revisiting Education in the NLD offers new insight into the Latino Diaspora in the US just as the discussions regarding immigration policy bilingual education and immigrant rights are gaining steam Drawing from a variety of perspectives contributing authors interrogate the very concept of the diaspora The wide range of research in this volume thoughtfully illustrates the nuanced phenomena and provides rich descriptions of complex situations No longer a simple question of immigration the book considers language and legal status in schools international adoption teacher preparation and the relationships between established and relatively new Latino communities in a variety of contexts Comprised of rich thoughtful research Revisiting Education provides a fascinating window into the context of Latino reception nationwide Rebecca M Callahan Associate Professor University of Texas Austin As the leader of a 10 years and counting research study in Mexico that has identified and interviewed transnationally mobile students with prior experience in U S schools I can affirm that in addition to students with backgrounds in California Arizona Texas and Colorado migration links now join schools in Georgia Minnesota Oklahoma Alabama etc to schools in Mexico For that reason and many others I am excited to see this far ranging interdisciplinary new text that considers policy implementation through lenses as different as teacher preparation Latino adoption into culturally mixed families the fate of Latino newcomers in low density districts where there are few like them and the misuse of Spanish teachers as interpreters This is an relevant book for American educators and scholars but also for readers beyond U S borders Hamann Wortham Murillo and their contributors should be celebrated for this fine new collection Dr V ctor Z iga Dean of Research and Extension Universidad de Monterrey
