International Organizations and the Fight for Accountability Carla Ferstman, 2017 This book analyzes the challenges citizens face obtaining remedies and reparation for harm suffered as a result of the actions of international organizations It encourages reflection on additional measures to strengthen accountability Weapons and the Law of Armed Conflict

William H. Boothby, 2016 Fully updated to include recent developments in the law of armed conflict this volume interprets the rules governing the use of weapons discusses the factors influencing developments in the law and contextualizes the debate over the direction of weapons law The Justification of War and International Order Lothar Brock, Hendrik Simon, 2021 In the past few decades the understanding of the relationship between nations has undergone a radical transformation The role of the traditional nation state is diminishing along with many of the traditional vocabularies which were once used to describe what has been called ever since Jeremy Bentham coined the phrase in 1780 international law The older boundaries between states are growing ever more fluid new conceptions and new languages have emerged which are slowly coming to replace the image of a world of sovereign independent nation states which has dominated the study of international relations since the early nineteenth century This redefinition of the international arena demands a new understanding of classical and contemporary questions in international and legal theory It is the editors conviction that the best way to achieve this is by bridging the traditional divide between international legal theory intellectual history and legal and political history The aim of the series therefore is to provide a forum for historical studies from classical antiquity to the twenty first century that are theoretically informed and for philosophical work that is historically conscious in the hope that a new vision of the rapidly evolving international world its past and its possible future may emerge Book jacket
