Landry, 2018-12-21 Tourists to Ouidah a city on the coast of the Republic of Benin in West Africa typically visit a few well known sites of significance to the Vodún religion the Python Temple where Dangbè the python spirit is worshipped and King Kpassè s sacred forest which is the seat of the Vodún deity known as Lok However other less familiar places such as the palace of the so called supreme chief of Vodún in Benin are also rising in popularity as tourists become increasingly adventurous and as more Vodún priests and temples make themselves available to foreigners in the hopes of earning extra money Timothy R Landry examines the connections between local Vodún priests and spiritual seekers who travel to Benin some for the snapshot others for full fledged initiation into the religion He argues that the ways in which the Vodún priests and tourists negotiate the transfer of confidential sacred knowledge create its value The more secrecy that surrounds Vodún ritual practice and material culture the more authentic coveted and consequently expensive that knowledge becomes Landry writes as anthropologist and initiate having participated in hundreds of Vodún ceremonies rituals and festivals Examining the role of money the incarnation of deities the limits of adaptation for the transnational community and the belief in spirits sorcery and witchcraft Vod n ponders the ethical implications of producing and consuming culture by local and international agents Highlighting the ways in which racialization power and the legacy of colonialism affect the procurement and transmission of secret knowledge in West Africa and beyond Landry demonstrates how paradoxically secrecy is critically important to Vod n s global expansion The Palgrave Handbook of African Politics, Governance and Development Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2017-10-10 This handbook constitutes a single collection of well researched articles and essays on African politics governance and development from the pre colonial through colonial to the post colonial eras Over the course of these interconnected periods African politics have evolved with varied experiences across different parts of the continent As politics is embedded both in the economy and the society Africa has witnessed some changes in politics economics demography and its relations with the world in ways that requires in depth analysis This work provides an opportunity for old and new scholars to engage in the universe of the debate around African politics governance and development and will serve as a ready reference material for students researchers policy makers and investors that are concerned with these issues When Helping Works Michael Bamwesigye Badriaki, 2017-05-03 Today people from various parts of the world who are interested in helping fellow human beings impacted by famine epidemics wars and poverty are uniquely positioned They are interconnected due to globalization s impact which also has implications for intercultural work and global missions The ability to help people is a constructive asset which calls for the need to build friendships and partnerships across the globe Helping well depends on a number of factors yet this book looks into the impact of stereotype threat and its effects on intercultural identities the perceptions of others and performance in intercultural missions Human interactions continue to suffer due to fears anxious reactions about confirming negative stereotypes about a person s identity abilities and effectiveness in global missions Stereotype threat happens when caricatures and negative understandings about people s identities are invoked The Oxford Handbook of Political Ideologies Michael Freeden, Lyman Tower Sargent, Marc Stears, 2013-08-15 The most practically applied approach to political ideologies evaluate critically make links think globally The Decolonial Politics and Philosophy of Ngugi wa Thiong'o Brian Sibanda, 2024-11-18 The Decolonial Politics and Philosophy of Ngugi wa Thiong'o offers a critical analysis of Ngugi wa Thiong'o epistemic journey from a communalist communist nationalist post colonial theorist and ultimately an established decolonial spokesperson of the Global South in the league of Paulo Freire Edward Said and Frantz Fanon Through a reading of his novels and essays this book provides insight into wa Thiong'o s decolonial thought that was established within his overarching philosophy and later became the organizing idea for wa Thiong'o s political activism Brian Sibanda presents wa Thiong'o as an example of a philosopher within the Global South who has unmasked coloniality shining light where Eurocentrism has cast darkness This book offers a fresh perspective for scholars and readers interested in decolonial theory and African philosophy The

The Political Economy of Heaven and Earth in Ghana Charles Prempeh, 2023-09-30 In March 2017 the president of Ghana Nana Addo Dankwa Akufo announced his intention to build a national cathedral to the people of Ghana The announcement elicited watertight counter arguments that morphed into two a priori re litigated assumptions First Ghana is a secular country and second religion and state formation are incompatible Informed by a frustrating paradox of an overwhelming religious presence and concurrent pervasive corruption in the country public conversation reached a cul de sac of conviction without compromising In The Political Economy of Heaven and Earth in Ghana Charles Prempeh deploys the national cathedral as an entry point to provide both interdisciplinary and autoethnographic understanding of religion and politics The book shows the capacity of religion when properly cultivated and curated as a worldview to answer the why questions of life will foster personal moral collective and ontological responsibility All this is needed to stem the tide against corruption commodity fetishism environmental degradation illegal mining galamsey heritage destruction and religious exploitation Prempeh recuperates a historical fact about the mutual inclusivity between religion and politics politics helping to manage differences while religion provides a transcendental reason for unity to be forged for human flourishing Separating the two is therefore ahistorical and an obvious threat to the intangible virtues that answers why and how questions for public governance
