Between Politics and, 2023-03-20 In this accessible and authoritative book Godfrey Kanyenze provides a comprehensive and far reaching analysis of the socio economic development in Zimbabwe in light of the expanding authoritarianism and the ongoing destruction of democratic institutions during the four decades after independence Kanyenze describes the various phases of the socio economic development starting with 1980 when the people of Zimbabwe saw their hard won independence and new democracy as a promise for a Judicial Coverage and Fragmentation in International

Human Rights Law Elena Abrusci, 2023 This book provides an innovative analysis of the complex issue of judicial convergence and fragmentation in international human rights law moving the conversation forward from the assessment of the two phenomena and investigating their triggering factors With a wide geographical focus that include the most up to date caselaw from the three main regional systems the African European and Inter American and the UN Human Rights Committee the book confirms the predominant judicial convergence across international human rights law On this basis the book engages with an interdisciplinary investigation into the legal and non legal factors that could explain both convergence and fragmentation ranging from the use of judicial dialogue and the notions of necessity and proportionality to the composition of the courts and the role of NGOs The aim is to provide the tools to understand the dynamics between human rights adjudicatory bodies and possibly foresee future instances of judicial fragmentation Cross-border Migration:

Zimbabwe - South Africa Exodus Elvis A Masawi, 2017-01-14 The tribulations and terrors of the Zimbabwean diaspora seeking economic sanctuary in South Africa The Engagement of Domestic Courts with International Law Eleni

Methymaki, 2024-03-20 The relationship between domestic courts and international law is usually defined by the frameworks of monism and dualism The Engagement of Domestic Courts with International Law advances and develops a new paradigm for describing assessing and understanding the role of domestic courts in the international legal order Two trends are examined in parallel in this volume The traditional dividing lines between national and international law norms and institutions have become increasingly blurred However the practice of domestic courts can less and less be understood by reference to a formal approach that dictates how national legal orders receive international law The solutions that courts reach are often based on a variety of other considerations that are not captured by the classical formal models The aim of the book is to bring together the wide variety of types of engagement as an important step towards a better understanding of what courts do and eventually towards a normative exercise of articulating principles or guidelines for the engagement of domestic courts with international law To bring together the pragmatic approaches of domestic courts the International Law Association Study Group on Principles on the Engagement of Domestic Courts with International Law engaged in studies with experts from a variety of backgrounds On the basis of the Study Group s Final Report the editors of this book continued to work with experts from different jurisdictions to collect and analyse alternate pragmatic forms of engagement from domestic courts This publication contains the outcome of this process

African Studies in the Academy

Munyaradzi, Mubaya, Tapuwa R., 2017-08-09 For a long time African Studies as a discipline has been spearheaded by academics and institutions in the Global North This puts African Studies on the continent at a crossroads of making choices on whether such a discipline can be legitimately accepted as an epistemological discipline seeking objectivity and truth about Africa and the African peoples or a discipline meant to perpetuate the North s hegemonic socio economic political and epistemic control over Africa The compound question that immediately arises is Who should produce what and which space should African Studies occupy in the academy both of the North and of the South Confronted by such a question one wonders whether the existence of African Studies Centres in the Global North academics open opportunities for critical thinking on Africa or it opens possibilities for the emergence of the same discipline in Africa as a fertile space for trans disciplinary debate While approaches critical for the development of African Studies are pervasive in African universities through fields such as cultural studies social anthropology history sociology indigenous knowledge studies and African philosophy the discipline of African Studies though critical to Africa is rarely practiced as such in the African academy and its future on the continent remains bleak African Studies in the Academy is a testimony that if honestly and objectively practiced the crossroads position of African Studies as a discipline makes it a fertile ground for generating and testing new approaches critical for researching and understanding Africa It also challenges Africa to seriously consider assuming its legitimate position to champion African Studies from within These issues are at the heart of the present volume

Legal Protection of Foreign Direct Investment. A Critical Assessment with Focus on South Africa and Zimbabwe Talkmore Chidede, 2016-09 This study undertakes a critical assessment of the legal protection of foreign direct investments FDI in South Africa and Zimbabwe by determining their compliance with the international minimum standards norms and or best practices on the legal protection of FDI by host states Firstly the study argues that foreign investment is much needed in South Africa and Zimbabwe to improve economic growth and development to create jobs and to increase their competitiveness However these benefits are not accrued automatically but rather host states need to create an enabling environment to receive such benefits Thus host states need to put an investment scheme into operation to guarantee the legal protection of foreign investments South Africa and Zimbabwe have at large crafted and implemented investment laws and related policies which tend to be hostile towards foreign investments Therefore similar investment laws and related policies in both jurisdictions are analysed This study will also offer recommendations for a legal investment which is not only flexible friendly and favourable to foreign investment in South Africa and Zimbabwe but also advances their local economic policies

Cyclones in Southern Africa Godwell Nhamo, David Chikodzi, 2021-05-24 There is evidence that the world has been witnessing more intense tropical cyclones Accompanying these tropical cyclones are heightened levels of devastation that witness the loss of human life and wildlife destruction of natural resources and property and the disruption of major economic and social activities To this end there is a growing demand for publications focusing on tropical cyclones at various levels that include regional national and local levels especially from Africa One sub region that has been witnessing the harsh realities of the increasing intensity of tropical cyclones in southern Africa However within this region countries are usually impacted at varying degrees of damage Among the countries that usually encounter the harshness of these tropical cyclones are the Comoros Botswana Madagascar Mauritius Malawi Mozambique Reunion the Seychelles South Africa and Zimbabwe From the history books the following tropical cyclones made landfall and hit southern Africa Eline 2000 Favio 2007 Dineo 2017 Idai 2019 Kenneth 2019 Eliose 2021 and Chalane 2020 Although all these tropical cyclones had negative impacts it is undoubtedly Tropical Cyclone Idai that shocked the world with its devastation mainly in Mozambique Malawi and Zimbabwe in March 2019 Key infrastructure was destroyed livelihoods were lost and the environment was degraded Thousands of people died many more were injured many remain unaccounted for and others remained homeless as of the time of finalising this book in February 2021 This book therefore focuses on the devastating impacts of Tropical Cyclone Idai in Zimbabwe The book interfaces Tropical Cyclone Idai s impacts with the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and some of the 17 Sustainable Development Goals SDGs This linkage was deliberate given that there is still time remaining until 2030 and the world has generally agreed to move into the future along the pathways of sustainable development and sustainability The book adds to the first comprehensive profiling of the impacts of tropical cyclones on southern African economies particularly that of Zimbabwe It also comes up as the first in a three volume series The other volumes to look out for are Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 2 Foundational and Fundamental Topics and Cyclones in Southern Africa Vol 3 Implications for the Sustainable Development Goals To this end this book is suitable as a read for several professionals and disciplines such as tourism and hospitality studies economics sustainable development development studies environmental sciences arts geography life sciences politics planning and public health
