Travels With Stan English Edition:

Guyana Kirk Smock, 2008 South America's often overlooked English speaking country lies far off the well trodden tourist path Guyana is the ideal destination for the discerning visitor seeking adventure Within its vast interior the Guiana Shield one of the four pristine tropical rainforests left in the world converges with the Amazon Basin creating a unique geography composed of coastal waters mangroves marshes savannas mountains and tropical rainforests Bordered by Venezuela Brazil Suriname and the Atlantic Ocean the lively locals a melting pot of East Indian and African descendants peppered with Chinese Europeans and Amerindians create a culture decidedly more Caribbean than Latin The Journey from Texts to

Natural History & Travel Antiquariaat Junk (Firm),1998 Nostalgia Helmut Illbruck,2012-10-31 Helmut Illbruck traces the concept of nostalgia from the earliest uses of the term in the seventeenth century to today as it evolves with different meanings and intensities in the discourses of medicine literature philosophy and aesthetics Following nostalgia's troubled relations to the philosophical project of the Enlightenment Illbruck's study builds a cumulative argument about nostalgia's modern significance that often revises and thoroughly enriches our understanding of cultural literary and intellectual history Illbruck concludes with an attempt at a reinterpretation and defense of nostalgia which seduces us to read and think with rather than against nostalgia's wistful yearning for the past Nostalgia Origins and Ends of an Unenlightened Disease is a comprehensive insistent and profound interdisciplinary investigation of the history of an idea It should appeal to readers interested in the cultural makings of the Enlightenment and modernity or in the histories of Contemporary theory is replete with metaphors of travel displacement diaspora borders exile migration nomadism homelessness and tourism to name a few In Questions of Travel Caren Kaplan explores the various metaphoric uses of travel and displacement in literary and feminist theory traces the political implications of this traveling theory and shows how various discourses of displacement link rather than separate modernism and postmodernism Addressing a wide range of writers including Paul Fussell Edward Said James Clifford Gilles Deleuze Jean Baudrillard Gayatri Spivak Edward Soja Doreen Massey Chandra Mohanty and Adrienne Rich Kaplan demonstrates that symbols and metaphors of travel are used in ways that obscure key differences of power between nationalities classes races and genders Neither rejecting nor dismissing the powerful testimony of individual experiences of modern exile or displacement Kaplan asks how mystified metaphors of travel might be avoided With a focus on theory s colonial discourses she reveals how these metaphors continue to operate in the seemingly liberatory critical zones of poststructuralism and feminist theory The book concludes with a critique of the politics of location as a form of essentialist identity politics and calls for new feminist geographies of place and displacement
