Students must enter only the village number for the village specified on the survey table on the online form. In other words, village numbers are provided on the bottom page of the map (printed) and on the paper map. When entering the village number in the on-line village survey page, the village number is not as small as on the paper map. To change the village, use a "cancel" procedure to return the page to the on-line village survey page and re-enter the village number.
