More Than Meets the Eye A. Nigel Goring-Morris, Anna Belfer-Cohen, 2003 These twenty three papers focus on recent research into the Upper Palaeolithic of the Levant a murky period of human history ca 45 000 to 20 000 years ago during which modern patterns of human behaviour and communication became the norm The vast majority of archaeological data from this period relates to chipped stone tools and most contributors focus on defining and distinguishing the two main traditions in lithic technology the Levantine Aurignacian and the Ahmarian Some papers report on recent fieldwork others seek to define and explain reasons for variation and change in material culture Do lithic traditions represent different corporate groups of hunter gatherers or can variation be explained by other factors such as adaptations to local landscapes and environments or changing patterns of mobility An appendix provides a comprehensive list of available Upper Palaeolithic 14C dates in the Near East Most of the papers derive from a conference session on the Levantine Upper Palaeolithic held as part of the Society for American Archaeology annual meeting in 2000

Porter, 2021-06-08

Three problems in the life of the church 1 For the past millennium theologians have done a brisk trade in proofs arguments for the so called existence of God the validity of the Christian faith and so on I think this is a mistake Christianity is a choice 2 Typical Christian theology begins with Jesus rather than with the Common Documents the documents shared in common by Christianity and rabbinic Judaism This is Marcionite Theology so called for a second century figure who wanted to delete the Common Documents from the Bible Many problems in theology become much more tractable if the Common Documents the Exodus focally are treated as a model rather than as a mere prologue to the New Testament 3 There are problems with God interfering with nature and they have become worse with modern science God interfering with nature doesn t just injure the sciences it also generates serious pathologies in theology The theme is choices made by the church and the book is called

The Accountant's Tale because somebody once asked an accountant What is two times two and got the answer What do you want it to be     Considerations on Education for Economic, Social, and Environmental Sustainability Sart, Gamze,2023-05-08 Considerable increases in economic growth and development population and urbanization have been experienced in the world as of the industrial revolution but significant environmental degradation climate change resource depletion inequality in education and income gender inequality and poverty have accompanied these developments In this context the joint efforts of the United Nations and countries have led to the emergence of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development consisting of 17 sustainable development goals to overcome these problems One of the sustainable development goals is quality education Education can influence the achievement of other sustainable development goals through various channels Considerations on Education for Economic Social and Environmental Sustainability explores the impact of education on the main components of sustainable development consisting of economic environmental and social sustainability Covering topics such as business transformation transitional innovation and the professional integration of graduates this premier reference source is an excellent resource for business leaders government officials sociologists educators of higher and K 12 education preservice teachers administrators policymakers researchers and academicians

Apocalypse TV Michael G. Cornelius,Sherry Ginn,2020-03-19 The end of the world may be upon us but it certainly is taking its sweet time playing out The walkers on The Walking Dead have been walking for nearly a decade There are now dozens of apocalyptic television shows and we use the end times to describe everything from domestic politics and international conflict to the weather and our views of the future This collection of new essays asks what it means to live in a world inundated with representations of the apocalypse Focusing on such series as The Walking Dead The Strain Battlestar Galactica Doomsday Preppers Westworld The Handmaid's Tale they explore how the serialization of the end of the world allows for a closer examination of the disintegration of humanity while it happens Do these shows prepare us for what is to come Do they spur us to action Might they even be causing the apocalypse     The Whedonverse Catalog Don
