Transforming Renewal Charismatic Renewal Meets Thomas Merton:

Transforming Renewal Andy Lord, 2015-01-12 Pentecostal and charismatic renewal movements have seen great growth over the last century and have engaged with many Christian traditions Yet there are signs that all is not well and there is a need to develop theologies of renewal that engage with practice and across the traditions if the movements are to continue to grow In particular this book seeks an ecumenical engagement between David Watson and Thomas Merton leaders in the charismatic and monastic renewal movements The aim is to reflect on the theological roots of these renewal movements through a study of particular people who lived them in practice and sought to help others understand how the triune God was at work This is done against the wider background of contemporary renewalist theology to develop constructive proposals for renewal theology in the future Receptive ecumenism provides the method for bringing the different voices into conversation in ways that also point forward in approaches to ecumenical dialogue It is thus a study relevant to those seeking new ways in theology those involved in renewal and ecumenical movements students of Thomas Merton and all who seek to better understand the Christian renewal movements that have swept the world

A Shorter Guide to the Holy Spirit Anthony C. Thiselton ,2016 Anthony Thiselton s scholarly book The Holy Spirit In Biblical Teaching through the Centuries and Today was published to wide acclaim in 2013 and received a 2014 Christianity Today Book Award This shorter volume makes Thiselton s vast biblical theological knowledge and brilliant insight more accessible to more readers

Thomas Merton's Encounter with Buddhism and Beyond Jaechan Anselmo Park, 2019-03-07 Thomas Merton recognized the value and possibility of contemplative dialogue between monastics and contemplatives of other religious traditions and hoped that through such dialogue monastics would strive for inter monastic communion and a bonding of the broader spiritual family He held out hope that this bond would demonstrate the fundamental unity of humanity to a world that was becoming ever more materialistic and divided Among other themes and topics this book explores Thomas Merton's role as a pioneer of Buddhist Christian dialogue and monastic interreligious dialogue. It delves into the process of Merton's self-transformation through contemplative experiences, explores his encounter with Zen and Tibetan Buddhists, and his pioneering engagements in Buddhist Christian dialogue, and presents and responds to the criticisms of those who raise questions about Merton's understanding of Buddhism. Fr. Jaechan Anselmo Park OSB articulates and analyzes the influences of Buddhist theory and practice on Thomas Merton's contemplative spirituality and shows how Merton's legacy has influenced and continues to inspire interreligious and inter-monastic dialogue, particularly in an Asian monastic context.

Landscape, Soul and Spirit Andy Lord, 2025-02-11 How might we develop our spirituality in the context of an environmental crisis that demands changes to our individual and communal ways of life? There is a challenge to develop our inherited patterns of spiritual life in the current ecological context. This book aims to reflect on the Christian contemplative tradition in dialogue with writings of the leading nature writer Robert Macfarlane. The argument is that each of his six books can be seen as nurturing a particular spiritual practice. In this, Macfarlane's focus on interactions between landscapes and the soul is extended to include the spirit. At a time of crisis, it is important to nourish contemplative approaches that engage our longings, attentiveness, and sense of time. These enable us to discover renewal, hear fresh voices, and live in union with all of life. This book acts both as an introduction to Macfarlane and a stimulus to further reflection on spirituality and the environment.

Immersed in God and the World: Living Priestly Ministry Andy Lord, 2024-07-30 Fairacres Publications 213 In increasingly busy and diverse lives, what might it mean to live as priests immersed in God and the world? This book explores a personal experience of ordained priesthood shaped by the Jesus Prayer in the context of the Catholic, charismatic, and evangelical traditions. It explores the contemplative disciplines of Presence and Attentiveness to the overflowing life of God in all things. There is an invitation to all, ordained or not, to enter into a life stretched through the abundance of God. While realistic about the challenges we face, this book seeks to nurture hope in the God who is always at work in Christ by the Spirit.

Anglicans and Pentecostals in Dialogue David Hilborn, Simo Frestadius, 2023-09-22 This is the first comprehensive book on Anglican and Pentecostal ecumenical relations. It introduces both movements with a particular focus on their approaches to ecumenism, before exploring sacraments, ministry, ecclesiology, pneumatology, and mission with respect to both traditions. As well as providing more theological and historical discussion, the book also offers personal accounts of local, national, and international ecumenical engagement by both Anglicans and Pentecostals. It is written predominantly, although not exclusively, from a British perspective. Even so, as the first major published dialogue between these two global Christian traditions, the book will be of value to all interested in Anglicanism, Pentecostalism, and ecumenism.
