Transmettre Pour Construire:

Construire du sens, transmettre un sens Diane du Val d'Éprémesnil, 2020-11-26 Cet ouvrage pose la question de la construction de sens au cours de religion catholique de Belgique francophone avec une proposition qui concerne plus particulièrement les élèves de la fin du secondaire et leurs enseignants. Trois fils rouges guident le travail qui lui confère une coloration spécifique. Le premier a trait au sens entendu dans son acception la plus large qui va du sens du langage au sens le plus ultime en passant par le sens tel qu'il se décline au cœur d'une existence. Le suivant renvoie à l'articulation entre la construction et la transmission d'un sens, la première expression se rapportant à la pratique des communautés de recherche, la seconde s'inscrivant dans l'acception classique du terme en lien aux savoirs. Le dernier fil conducteur est relatif à l'association de deux disciplines essentielles pour le cours: la philosophie et la théologie, avec une insistance sur la philosophie comme mode de vie et qu'il est de sagesse rapprocher de la quête de sens mais également sur l'interdit d'introduire les jeunes une forme de silence et d'introspection.

Transmettre pour construire Hervé Mariton, 2010-09-22 T00:00:00+02:00 Face à la crise, la politique ne peut pas se contenter d'être un thème. La France a besoin d'un projet et la leçon présidentielle de 2012 est une chance pour le construire. Rien ne sert d'inventer des ruptures qui puisent et se puisent; c'est de transmettre qu'il s'agit. Transmettre le mouvement, partager des valeurs, inventer la liberté. Cette réflexion est indispensable, la solution claire de la crise. La tradition culturelle de notre pays, la France, notre population, notre amour de la vie, le lien de l'économie et de la confiance nourrissent la force de la transmission et cette force construit notre avenir. La réforme de l'école, la qualité des institutions, le débat de l'identité nationale, l'esprit de défense, les lois de bioéthique, la politique familiale, la réduction de la dette publique, la construction de la confiance dans le monde numérique sont autant de grands enjeux où la transmission est la fois source d'inspiration et objectif politique. Reformuler pourquoi, pour qui? Que faut-il reformuler, que vaut-il de conserver? Plutôt qu'affrontement et rupture, Hervé Mariton propose le projet politique d'une réforme juste. Les entretiens ont été conduits par Fabrice Madouas, rédacteur en chef adjoint Valeurs actuelles.

Apprentissage et transmission de l'expérience en situation de travail

Vanessa Rémercy (dir.), Fanny Chrétien (dir.), Céline Chatigny (dir.), 2021-03-04 L'évolution et le maintien des compétences est une préoccupation forte pour les milieux et les personnes qui ont pensé la continuité des activités de travail. Or cet enjeu s'exprime aussi bien en dehors du travail qu'en son sein, est remodelé par l'actualité politique des réformes sur la formation professionnelle qui s'interrogent sur les conditions et les modalités de transmission, l'apprentissage en milieu de travail. Au croisement de recherches en sciences de l'éducation et de la formation et de l'ergonomie constructive, cet ouvrage apporte un éclairage sur ces enjeux renouvelés et ouvre le débat autour de trois thématiques : celle des conditions de circulation et de partage de l'expérience professionnelle en situation de travail, celle des formats de transmission de l'expérience d'apprentissages et d'interactions apprenantes au travail et celle des questions de conception de dispositifs favorisant la transmission professionnelle à travers des ingénieries de formation en situation de travail. Les contributions portent ainsi un regard interdisciplinaire sur la professionnalisation, la considérant comme un processus fortement dépendant de la qualité des articulations entre formation et travail. Le livre intéressera donc au premier chef la communauté scientifique mais donnera également des repères aux professionnels et aux praticiens de la formation professionnelle.
