Transnational Labour Migration Remittances And:

Transnational Labour Migration, Remittances and the Changing Family in Asia L. Hoang, B. Yeoh, 2015-05-13 The contributors investigate the inter relationships between migrant remittances and the family in Asia They argue that in the context of Asian transnational labour migration where remittances tend to become a primary currency of care the making or breaking of the family unit is mainly contingent on how individuals handle remittance processes Handbook on Migration and the Family Johanna L. Waters, Brenda S.A. Yeoh, 2023-03-02 This Handbook is a timely and critical intervention into debates on changing family dynamics in the face of globalization population migration and uneven mobilities By capturing the diversity of family types arrangements and strategies across a global setting the volume highlights how migration is inextricably linked to complex familial relationships often in supportive and nurturing ways but also violent and oppressive at other times Women, Gender, Remittances and Development in the Global South Ton van Naerssen, Lothar Smith, Marianne H. Marchand, 2016-03-09 This book endeavours to take the conceptualisation of the relationship between transnational remittance exchanges and gender to a new level Thus inevitably it provides a number of case studies of relationships between gender and remittances from around the world highlighting different processes and practises Thereby the authors seek to understand the impact of remittances on gender and gender relations both at the sending as well as at the receiving end For each case study authors ask how remittances affect gender identities and relationships but also vice versa By itself this already adds a wealth of insights to a field that is remarkably understudied despite a volume of studies on gender and the feminization of migration in developing contexts Chapters take an open explorative approach to the relationship between gender and remittance behaviour with the aid of case studies focusing on transnational flows between migrants and countries of origin With the wide variety of cases this book is able to provide conceptual insights to better understand how remittances affect gender identity roles and relations at both the receiving and sending end and give specific attention to the roles of various actors directly and indirectly involved in remittance sending in current collectively organized remittance schemes from around the world Handbook on Transnationalism Yeoh, Brenda S.A., Collins, Francis L., 2022-01-18 Providing a critical overview of transnationalism as a concept this Handbook looks at its growing influence in an era of high speed globalised interconnectivity It offers crucial insights on how approaches to transnationalism have altered how we think about social life from the family to the nation state whilst also challenging the predominance of methodologically nationalist analyses Merchants of Migrant Domestic Labour Liberty L. Chee, 2025-08-31 This open access book discusses the market logic of recruitment agencies who deploy migrant domestic workers in Southeast Asia Agencies are involved in all stages of worker migration trajectory from their selection to their training and their management at the destination The book describes how and why these private actors play such an outsized role in this kind of worker mobility and examines their relations with employers workers and state apparatuses It focuses on agents operating in the largest migrant sending countries the Philippines and Indonesia and receiving countries Malaysia and Singapore in Southeast Asia These pioneering migration industries in the region have established practices and norms that have and continue to diffuse to other world regions This book is of interest to policymakers practitioners students and researchers in migration studies global governance gender and migration globalization and development Southeast Asian studies and area studies in political science     The Politics of Migrant Labour Gabriella Alberti,Devi Sacchetto,2025-07-15 At a time when worker shortages have emerged as a global challenge this highly original book bridges migration and labour studies to examine worker mobility and its management This will be a valuable resource for both scholars and practitioners

Migration, Regionalization, Citizenship Katja Sarkowsky,Rainer-Olaf Schultze,Sabine Schwarze,2014-12-04 From the perspectives of the political sciences as well as literature and language studies this volume looks comparatively at Canadian and European constellations of cultural and linguistic diversity By so doing it takes Canada as exemplary for the effects of transnationalization regionalization and cultural and linguistic diversification on notions of citizenship and processes of identity formation     Tender Labour Jennifer E. Shaw,2025-04-01 To meet demand in Canada more and more women are migrating from the Philippines to become domestic workers What happens to family left behind Tender Labour investigates the experiences of young people as they navigate precarity in all its forms when their mothers work elsewhere Jennifer Shaw conducts nuanced research with youth who have been separated from and later reunited with their mothers in Canada incorporating their own voices through poems song lyrics and photographs She focuses on how their tender labour the work they perform within their families emerges not only from necessity but also from the stresses and dreams that tug at the threads of kinship The role of young people in familial migrations reveals the hard consequences of capitalist extraction of transnational labour Nonetheless despite childhoods shaped by economic inequality and racialized disparity Shaw discovers that these Filipina o young people keep their hope of a good life     The Impact of International Labor Migration on Regional Development Volker Hamann,2007     Handbook on Home and Migration Paolo Boccagni,2023-06-01 This dynamic Handbook unpacks the entanglements between the two notions of home and migration which illuminate the lived experiences of in voluntary mobilities and the contested terrain of inclusion and belonging Drawing on cross disciplinary contributions from leading international scholars it advances research on the social study of home in relation to migration refugee displacement and diaspora studies This title contains one or more Open Access chapters     Migration in Southeast Asia Sriprapha Petcharamesree,Mark P. Capaldi,2023-03-21 This open access IMISCOE Regional Reader explores the issues faced by migrant groups in Southeast Asia and the challenges of getting of their human rights recognized It analyses the different responses or lack thereof of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN to these highly complex situations which are shaped by contemporary debates around borders and concepts of states migrants rights as well as access to citizenship and how these concepts and paradigms are intertwined with issues such as agency and resilience of migrants Crucial attention is given to the region's lesser known populations and issues such as the Vietnamese in Thailand people of Indonesian descent PIDs in Southern Philippines independent child migrants across the region and the vulnerabilities of migrant workers facing the COVID 19 pandemic With its unique regional focus this book provides a valuable resource to those studying human rights and migration issues policy makers and researchers and students

The Cambridge Handbook for the Anthropology of Gender and Sexuality Cecilia McCallum, Silvia Posocco, Martin Fotta, 2023-10-19 The tense but enduring engagement between anthropology and gender and sexuality studies has had profound effects upon anthropological theory and practice Bringing together contributions from an international team of authors this Handbook shows that anthropological work has taken inspiration from feminist and LGBTQI movements to create a transformative body of research It provides an accessible state of the art overview of the anthropology of gender and sexuality whilst also documenting its historical emergence highlighting the varied impact gender and sexuality studies have had on anthropological theory It is split into five parts with each chapter introducing a contemporary anthropological theory through in depth ethnographical discussion It features intersectional black and indigenous authors providing a forum for established and emerging voices to gesture towards futures of anthropology of gender and sexuality Authoritative and cutting edge it is essential reading for researchers and students in anthropology and will set the agenda for future research in the field

Internal Migration, Crime, and Punishment in Contemporary China Anqi Shen, 2018-11-15 This work investigates inequality and social exclusion in contemporary Chinese society specifically in the context of urbanization migration and crime Economic reforms started in the late 1970s post Mao fuelled a trend of urbanization and mass migration within China largely from rural areas to more economically developed urban regions With this migration came new challenges in a rapidly changing society Researchers have extensively studied the rural to urban human movement social changes inequality and its impact on individuals and society as a whole This volume provides a new perspective on this issue It forges a link between internal migration inequality social exclusion and crime in the context of China through qualitative research into the impact of this phenomenon on individuals lives Using a series of case studies drawn from interviews with inmates men and women in a large Chinese prison it focuses on migrant offenders subjective experiences and analyses issues from the rarely heard perspectives of migrant lawbreakers themselves The research demonstrates how factors including the hukou system rural urban class and gender inequalities prejudices against rural migrants and other structural problems often lead to migrant offending The author argues that to mitigate the effects of criminalisation the root causes of these problems should be examined emphasizing radical reforms to the hukou policy cultural change in urban society to welcome newcomers positive programs to integrate migrant workers into urban societies and improve their opportunities rather than inflicting harsher penalties or reducing migration While the research is based in China it has clear implications for other regions of the world which are experiencing similar tensions related to national and international migration This work will be of interest to researchers in criminology and criminal justice particularly with an interest in Asia as well as those in related fields such as sociology law and social justice
