Transnational Turkish Islam:

Transnational Turkish Islam Thijs Sunier, Nico Landman, 2014-12-12 Transnational Turkish Islam provides an overview of Turkish organized Islam in seven European countries. It shows how Turkish Islamic organizations have developed from typical migrant associations in the 1970s and 1980s into present day European Islamic associations with their own cultural and religious specificities and agendas. Transnational Islam and the Integration of Turks in Great Britain Erdem

Dikici, 2021-10-07 This book brings a transnational perspective to the study of immigrant integration in contemporary Western European societies with a specific focus on transnational Turkish Islam and Turkish integration in Great Britain. It raises significant questions regarding national citizenship models and offers original insights into the ways in which they can be extended and renewed to cover the cross border reality. At the theoretical level Dikici argues that the idea of multiculturalism can be extended to cover immigrant transnationalism without jeopardising its core principles such as equality and recognition of difference and promises such as a shared national identity and unity in diversity. At the empirical level the book illustrates that not all transnational Muslim organisations are the same i.e. militant and nor do they all hinder Muslim integration rather they are diverse with some deliberately contributing to the integration of Muslims into non Muslim majority societies. The work will be of interest to scholars and students of contemporary integration and citizenship studies, multiculturalism studies, Muslim integration in Western societies, transnationalism and transnational Islam, Civil Society and Diaspora Studies. Integration and Transnationalism Erdem Dikici, 2016

Muslim Networks and Transnational Communities in and Across Europe Stefano Allievi, Jørgen S. Nielsen, 2003 This collection of twelve papers provides case studies and thematic reflections on the growing transnational networking of European Muslims and their involvement with contemporary global Islam. The volume pays particular attention to the mechanisms and significance of this phenomenon.

Transnational Muslim Politics Peter G. Mandaville, 2003-08-27 This radical book argues that translocal forces are leading the emergence of a wider Muslim public sphere. It will be invaluable for researchers in international relations, Islamic studies, cultural studies, sociology, religion and politics. Theoretical Approaches to Turkish Foreign Policy Paul

Kubicek, 2023-08-22 This volume with contributions from well respected experts on Turkey examines how well different theories and frameworks in international relations explain various aspects of contemporary Turkish foreign policy. TFP Exploring the value of both structural neorealist and ideational constructivist approaches the book's theory informed case studies on the features of TFP including Neo Ottomanism, the role of religion and Turkey's relations with the European Union, the Middle East, Russia and the United States provide an analytical perspective on developments that have captured the attention of both academics and policymakers. More importantly this collection examines the shift in Turkey's foreign policy stance from Western and secular non sectarian to Islamist, Turkist, Neo Ottomanist and Eurasianist orientations. With Turkey assuming importance across a number of regions and issues this book will be a great resource for academics, researchers and advanced students of Middle East Studies and Politics and International Relations This book was originally published as a special issue of the journal Turkish Studies      Political Islam Frederic Volpi, 2013-10-31 As the topic of political Islam gains increased visibility in international politics and current affairs it has become more difficult to navigate the vast literature that is devoted to explaining this phenomenon This reader provides the student with an accessible and comprehensive introduction to the study of political Islam Offering a clear route to the most influential literature in the field the diverse range of viewpoints presented allows students to obtain a detailed authoritative and critical perspective on the most pressing questions of the post 9 11 era With detailed introductory chapters and clear presentation of existing literature thematically arranged sections cover modern understandings and explanations of Islamism the emergence and development of Islamist groups political responses to the phenomenon democracy and democratization multiculturalism political violence and terrorism globalization the future of political Islam This overview of political Islam will help students at all levels to appreciate its many manifestations and dimensions A relevant text to introductory courses on history international affairs government and sociology this reader is an essential tool for students of the Middle East Muslim politics religion in politics and Islamism      Turkish Muslim Women in Berlin Ceren Kukul, 2024-09-23 Kukul presents her ethnographic work with Turkish Muslim women in Berlin as evidence that community is not an entity but is produced by instrumentalizing specific forms of identification and boundary making In examining the role of community in the case of her participants Kukul finds that religion and culture are important not for the values they perpetuate but for their role in forming and sustaining the community She looks at the importance of boundaries and especially their reciprocity Social boundaries are a set of codes of exclusion often used against migrants and refugees while symbolic boundaries are typically understood as the way one defines one's own group Kukul argues that these two types of boundaries tend to trigger each other and thus be mutually reinforcing At the same time she presents a picture of everyday life from the perspective of migrants and the children of migrants in a cosmopolitan European city Berlin A valuable read for scholars of migration and culture which will especially interest scholars focused on Europe      Japan, Turkey and the World of Islam Selçuk Esenbel, 2011-02-04 Widely known for her writings on Islam with a particular focus on the transnational history of politics in Islam and Japan this volume brings together twenty of the author's key essays thematically structured as Japan and Islam Japanese Ottoman Relations and Japanese Turkish Interaction and Reflections on Tokugawa Japan from Turkey Awarded the Japan Foundation Special Prize for Japanese Studies in 2007 Selçuk Esenbel's volume will provide an invaluable reference resource for current and future research in an increasingly important context      Transnationalism in the Balkans Denisa Kostovicova, Vesna Bojicic-Dzelilovic, 2013-10-18 After a decade of exclusive nationalism violence and isolation of the 1990s the Balkans has seen the emergence of transnational links between the former ethnic foes Do these new cross border links herald the era of inter ethnic reconciliation in place of the politics of ethnic exclusion Are they a proof of a successful transition from authoritarianism and war to democracy and peace Drawing on substantial empirical research by regional specialists Transnationalism in the Balkans provides a sobering insight into the nature of cross border links in the region and their implications Several of the authors show how transnational connections in the context of weak states and new borders in the region have been used by transnational actors be it in the politics economics and culture to undermine a democratic consolidation and keep the practice of exclusive ethnic politics and identities alive These findings make a strong case to go beyond the region and put forth a critical argument for rethinking the theories of transition to democracy in the post Communist and post conflict setting to incorporate a dimension of globalisation This book was previously published as a special issue of Ethnopolitics

Muslims in Europe Rauf Ceylan, Marvin Mücke, 2024-02-29 Since the migration movements from Islamic countries a Muslim diaspora has developed in many Western societies While in classical Islamic theology residence in non Muslim countries has always been a controversial issue in the course of globalization and internationalization processes the classical distinction between Islamic world and non Islamic world has been put into perspective Now nearly 30 million Muslims live in Europe The book offers an overview over Muslim communities in Europe their history present issues and future challenges

Hizmet in Transitions Paul Weller, 2022-04-21 In this open access monograph Paul Weller explores how the movement known as Hizmet meaning service is undergoing a period of transitions in Europe Inspired by the teaching and practice of the Turkish Islamic scholar Fethullah G len Hizmet has been active in Europe and other continents for several decades It has always been subject to some degree of contestation which has intensified following the July 2016 coup attempt in Turkey for which the current Turkish government holds Fethullah G len and Hizmet as responsible a claim they strongly deny In Turkey thousands of people associated with Hizmet have been imprisoned In Europe pressures have been brought to bear on the movement and its activities In charting a way forward Hizmet finds itself in a significant transitional period the nature and possible future trajectories of which are explored in this volume The book is informed by a comprehensive literature review and a recent research project which includes primary research interviews with key Hizmet figures in Europe and beyond It contends that to properly understand Hizmet in Europe one has to situate it in its interactive engagement both with its diverse European national contexts and with Fethullah G len s teaching and practice

Perspectives on Turkey's Multi-Regional Role in the 21st Century Dr Mujib Alam, 2015-07-15 This book dwells upon the various aspects of the Turkish foreign policy in the different regions of the world especially with the dawn of the twenty first century Turkey has attracted international attention due to a marked transformation in the country s domestic and external realms which in turn has led to an increased activism in its foreign policy actions Particularly Turkey s economic rise has fuelled the country s ambition and quest for a more significant role in international affairs These transformations have come about with the ascendance of the Adalet ve Kalk nma Partisi AKP or Justice Development Party JDP to power in 2002 Turkey under the AKP moved towards a new direction in the foreign policy and consequently endeavoured to play a larger role in West Asia Middle East the Balkans southern Mediterranean the Caucasus Central Asia Africa and Asia The country has emerged as a multi regional player having stakes and tractions on a range of issues in these regions The several discernible aspects of Turkey s involvement are dealt with in the contributions to this volume Turkish Immigrants in Western Europe and North America Sebnem Koser Akcapar,2013-09-13 Public and even scholarly debates usually focus on the integration problems of Muslim immigrants at the cost of overlooking the role of the growing number of migrant organizations in establishing a crucial link among immigrants themselves as well as between them and their countries of origin and residence This book aims to fill a gap in the vast literature on migration from Turkey by contributing the neglected aspect of civic and political participation of Turkish immigrants It brings together a number of scholars who carried out extensive research on the associational culture of Turkish immigrants living in different countries in Europe and North America In order to understand the diversity and dynamics within Turkish migrant communities living in these parts of the world yet maintaining transnational ties this book offers a comparative and interdisciplinary approach to migrant organizations in general and civic participation and political mobilization of Turkish immigrants in particular This book was published as a special issue in Turkish Studies

Religious Economies in Secular Context Rano Turaeva,Michael Brose,2023-12-09 This edited collection is one of the few sociological and anthropological studies of Halal markets The chapters inquire into the legal and religious aspects of Halal markets in non Muslim contexts or the countries where the label Halal matters and is not taken for granted as it is the case in most of the Muslim world where it is an accepted norm In many countries Halal has become a type of brand used to market food and cosmetic products This is an effective marketing strategy because it appeals directly to Muslims but also increasingly to non Muslims who seek pure fresh products In this case Halal implies attributes similar to other brands where quality and purity is guaranteed such as Fair Trade Bio or organic in the US and Europe but with the additional appeal to prospective Muslim consumers that it satisfies Islamic norms The book consists of contributions on Halal economies in non Muslim societies dealing with such dilemmas as rational thinking and halal philosophy within various fields of halal economy such as regulation production marketing service delivery and consumption

Fethullah Gülen's Teaching and Practice Paul Weller,2022-05-04 This is the first book of its kind about the Turkish Muslim scholar Fethullah Gülen since the July 2016 events in Turkey the trauma experienced by Gülen and the disruption to initiatives inspired by his teaching known as Hizmet Drawing on primary interviews with Gülen and Hizmet participants and a literature review this Open Access book locates the clear origins of Gülen s teaching in the Qur an and Sunnah in dynamic engagement with their geographical temporal and existential reception translation and onward communication It argues that as Hizmet cannot be understood apart from Gülen and his teaching Gülen and his teaching cannot be understood apart from Hizmet while exploring the heritage of both A more geographically focused case study is set out in author Paul Weller s Hizmet in Transitions European Developments of a Turkish Muslim Inspired Movement also published by Palgrave Macmillan 2022      The Gülen Movement Gürkan Çelik, 2010 The existence of social conflicts and the lack of social cohesion are at the center of public debates in many societies In recent years these issues have often been linked to Muslims and their religious beliefs The Islamic response to these allegations and the social problems evoking them has been diverse this book concerns the reply of a transnational movement of volunteers inspired by the teachings of Fethullah Gülen a Turkish Muslim scholar This study represents an attempt to incorporate the Gülen Movement also called the Volunteers Movement into a social movement theory approach In pluralist societies there are different communication structures and different ways of conflict resolution The Gülen Movement proposes and practices dialogue and education as two means to establish peace by maintaining social cohesion and mending the social cleavages dividing Muslims and non Muslims It is not only Gülen's spiritual message that has inspired people to pursue these ideals but also his leadership By focusing on its spiritual intellectual and practical dimension and its social background this book contributes to a comprehensive understanding of one of the most promising contemporary social movements Publisher's description back cover

Localizing Islam in Europe Ahmet Yükleven, 2012-02-13 In the twentieth century Muslim minorities emerged in Europe seeking work a refuge from conflict and higher life standards As a result there are now more than 12 million Muslims in Western Europe As these immigrants became permanent residents the Islamic communities they developed had to respond to their European context reinterpreting Islam in accordance with local conditions In Localizing Islam in Europe Yükleven brings this adaptation to light demonstrating how Islam and Europe have shaped one another and challenging the idea that Islamic beliefs are inherently antithetical to European secular democratic and pluralist values Yükleven compares five different religious communities among Muslim immigrants in the Netherlands and Germany that represent a spectrum from moderate to revolutionary Islamic opinions Drawing on extensive fieldwork he finds that despite differences in goals and beliefs these communities play an intermediary role negotiating between the social and religious needs of Muslims and the socioeconomic legal and political context of Europe Yükleven's rich ethnography shows that there is no single form of assimilated and privatized European Islam but rather Islamic communities and their interpretations and practices that localize Islam in Europe

Geographies of Muslim Identities Peter Hopkins, 2016-04-15 In recent years geographies of identities including those of ethnicity religion race and gender have formed an increasing focus of contemporary human geography The events of September 11th 2001 particularly illustrated the ways in which identities can be transformed across time and space by both global and local events of a social cultural political and economic nature Such transformations have also demonstrated the temporal and spatial construction of hate and fear and of increasing incidences of Islamophobia through the construction of Muslims as the Other As the social scientific study of religion continues to be marginalized within mainstream scholarship there remains an important gap in the literature This timely book addresses this gap by collecting a range of cutting edge contributions from the social cultural political historical and economic sub disciplines of geography together with writings from gender studies cultural studies and leisure studies where research has revealed a strong spatial dimension to the construction representation contestation and reworking of Muslim identities The contributors illustrate the ways in which such identities are constructed represented negotiated and contested in everyday life in a wide variety of international contexts focusing upon issues connected with diaspora gender and belonging

Negotiating Identities Riva Kastoryano, 2021-08-10 Immigration is even more hotly debated in Europe than in the United States In this pivotal work of action and discourse analysis Riva Kastoryano draws on extensive fieldwork including interviews with politicians immigrant leaders and militants to analyze interactions between states and immigrants in France and Germany Making frequent comparisons to the United States she delineates the role of states in constructing group identities and measures the impact of immigrant organization and mobilization on national identity Kastoryano argues that states contribute directly and indirectly to the elaboration of immigrants identity in part by articulating the grounds on which their groups are granted legitimacy Conversely immigrant organizations demanding recognition often redefine national identity by reinforcing or modifying traditional sentiments They use culture national references in Germany and religion in France to negotiate new political identities in ways that alter state composition and lead the state to negotiate its identity as well Despite their different histories Kastoryano finds that Germany France and the United States are converging in their policies toward immigration control and integration All three have adopted similar tactics and made similar institutional adjustments in their efforts to reconcile differences while tending national integrity The author builds her observations into a model of negotiations of identities useful to a broad cross section of social scientists and policy specialists She extends her analysis to consider how the European Union and transnational networks affect identities still negotiated at the national level The result is a forward thinking book that illuminates immigration from a new angle
