Trauma And Survival In Contemporary Fiction:

Trauma and Survival in Contemporary Fiction ,2002 Reading Trauma Narratives Laurie Vickroy,2015-10-30 As part of the contemporary reassessment of trauma that goes beyond Freudian psychoanalysis Laurie Vickroy theorizes trauma in the context of psychological literary and cultural criticism Focusing on novels by Margaret Atwood William Faulkner Toni Morrison Jeanette Winterson and Chuck Palahniuk she shows how these writers try to enlarge our understanding of the relationship between individual traumas and the social forces of injustice oppression and objectification Further she argues their work provides striking examples of how the devastating effects of trauma whether sexual socioeconomic or racial on individual personality can be depicted in narrative Vickroy offers a unique blend of interpretive frameworks She draws on theories of trauma and narrative to analyze the ways in which her selected texts engage readers both cognitively and ethically immersing them in and yet providing perspective on the flawed thinking and behavior of the traumatized and revealing how the psychology of fear can be a driving force for individuals as well as for society Through this engagement these writers enable readers to understand their own roles in systems of power and how they internalize the ideologies of those systems Trauma, Memory and Silence of the Irish Woman in Contemporary Literature Madalina

Armie,Veronica Membrive,2023-01-30 This volume studies the manifestations of female trauma through the exploration of multiple wounds inflicted on both body and mind Caruth 1996 3 and the soul of Irish women from Northern Ireland and the Republic within a contemporary context and in literary works written at the turn of the twenty first century and beyond These artistic manifestations connect tradition and modernity debunk myths break the silence with the exposure of uncomfortable realities dismantle stereotypes and reflect reality with precision Women s issues and female experiences depicted in contemporary fiction may provide an explanation for past and present gender dynamics revealing a pathway for further renegotiation of gender roles and the achievement of equilibrium and equality between sexes These works might help to seal and heal wounds both old and new and offer solutions to the quandaries of tomorrow Contemporary American

Trauma Narratives Alan Gibbs,2014-06-16 This book looks at the way writers present the effects of trauma in their work It explores narrative devices such as OCymetafictionOCO as well as events in contemporary America including 9 11 the Iraq War and reactions to the Bush administration Identity and Form in Contemporary Literature Ana María

Sánchez-Arce,2013-10-08 This ambitious and wide ranging essay collection analyses how identity and form intersect in twentieth and twenty first century literature It revises and deconstructs the binary oppositions identity form content form and body mind through discussions of the role of the author in the interpretation of literary texts the ways in which writers bypass or embrace identity politics and the function of identity and the body in form Essays tackle these issues from a number of positions including identity categories such as dis ability gender race and sexuality as well as questioning these categories themselves Essayists look at both identity as form and form as identity Although identity and form are both staples of current research on contemporary literature they rarely meet in the way this collection allows Authors studied include Beryl Bainbridge Samuel Beckett John Berryman Brigid Brophy Angela Carter J M Coetzee Anne Enright William Faulkner Mark Haddon Ted Hughes Kazuo Ishiguro B S Johnson A L Kennedy Toby Litt Hilary Mantel Andrea Levy Robert Lowell Ian McEwan Flannery O Connor Alice Oswald Sylvia Plath Jeremy Reed Anne Sexton Edith Sitwell Wallace Stevens Jeremy Reed Jeanette Winterson and Virginia Woolf The book engages with key theoretical approaches to twentieth and twenty first century literature of the last twenty years while at the same time advancing new frameworks that enable readers to reconsider the identity and form conundrum In both its choice of texts and diverse approaches it will be of interest to those working on English and American Literatures gender studies queer studies disability studies postcolonial literature and literature and philosophy

The Nature of Trauma in American Novels Michelle Balaev, 2012-06-11 This book examines literary trauma theory from its foundations to its implementations and new possibilities A n analysis that reconsiders the meaning and value of traumatic experience by demonstrating the diversity of its forms in contemporary American novels in an effort to deepen the discussion of trauma beyond that of the disease driven paradigm in literary criticism today The author s model views trauma and the process of remembering within a framework that emphasizes the multiplicity of responses to an extreme experience and the importance of contextual factors in determining the significance of the event In order to demonstrate this new approach she focuses her discussion on late modern canonical and emergent American novels that deal with trauma In analyzing the narrative methods authors employ to portray suffering she found two major patterns the use of landscape imagery to convey the effects of trauma and remembering and the use of place as a site that shapes the protagonist s experience and perception of the world Introduction

Biblical Women in Contemporary Novels in English Ingrid Bertrand, 2020-02-10 How are well known female characters from the Bible represented in late 20th century novels In Biblical Women in Contemporary Novels in English Ingrid Bertrand presents a detailed analysis of biblical rewritings by Roberts Atwood Tennant Diamant and Diski focusing on six different women Eve Noah s wife Sarah Bilhah Dinah and Mary Magdalene She shows how these heroines give themselves a voice that rests not only on words but also on silences Exploring the many forms that silence can take she presents an innovative typology that sheds new light on this profoundly meaningful phenomenon

The Specter and the Speculative Mae G. Henderson, Jeanne Scheper, Gene Melton, 2024-05-31 The Specter and the Speculative Afterlives and Archives in the African Diaspora engages in a critical conversation about how historical subjects and historical texts within the African Diaspora are re fashioned re animated and re articulated as well as parodied nostalgized and defamiliarized to establish an afterlife for African Atlantic identities and narratives These essays focus on transnational transdisciplinary and transhistorical sites of memory and haunting textual visual and embodied performances in order to examine how these living archives circulate and imagine anew the meanings of prior narratives liberated from their original context Individual essays examine how historical and literary performances in addition to film drama music dance and material culture thus revitalized transcend and speak across temporal and spatial boundaries not only to reinstate traditional meanings but also to motivate fresh commentary and critique Emergent and established scholars representing diverse disciplines and fields of interest specifically engage under explored themes related to afterlives archives and haunting

Writings of Persuasion and Dissonance in the Great War, 2016-06-10 Through chapters dedicated to specific writers and texts Writings of Persuasion and Dissonance in the Great War is a collection of essays examining literary responses to the Great War particularly the confrontation of two distinct languages One of these reflects nineteenth century ideals of war as a noble sacrifice the other portrays the hopeless brutal reality of the trenches The ultimate aim of this volume is to convey and reinforce the notion that no explicit literary language can ever be regarded as the definitive language of the Great War nor can it ever hope to represent this conflict in its entirety The collection also uncovers how memory constantly develops triggering distinct and even contradictory responses from those involved in the complex process of remembering Contributors Donna Coates Brian Dillon Monique Dumontet Dorothea Flothow Elizabeth Galway Laurie Kaplan Sara Mart n Alegre Silvia Mergenthal Andrew Monnickendam David Owen Andrew Palmer Bill Phillips Cristina Pivodori Esther Pujolr s Noguera Richard Smith

Trauma and Dissociation in the Works and Life of Sebastian Barry Niko Pomakis, 2021-01-12 Can language and literature cure psychological trauma If so what forms do they have to take in doing so When does language hit the wall where the unspeakable mandates silence And where might literature come in as the rescuing hand by offering forms of expression which are rooted in speech but transcend the merely spoken This study confronts these issues through the double lenses of Sebastian Barry s uvre and the complex of dissociative disorders that are at work both in his creative output and the ways in which he fictionalizes dark and traumatic biographical data Dr Niko Pomakis has studied Philosophy and English at the Friedrich Alexander University Erlangen Nuremberg FAU and University College Dublin He earned his PhD in English Literature at the FAU Erlangen Nuremberg

Post-Conflict Literature Chris Andrews, Matt McGuire, 2016-04-20 This book brings together a variety of perspectives to explore the role of literature in the aftermath of political conflict studying the ways in which writers approach violent conflict and the equally important subject of peace Essays put insights from Peace and Conflict Studies into dialog with the unique ways in which literature attempts to understand the past and to reimagine both the present and the future exploring concepts like truth and reconciliation post traumatic memory historical reckoning therapeutic storytelling transitional justice archival memory and questions about victimhood and reparation Drawing on a range of literary texts and addressing a variety of post conflict societies this volume charts and explores the ways in which literature attempts to depict and make sense of this new philosophical terrain As such it aims to offer a self conscious examination of literature and the discipline of literary studies considering the ability of both to interrogate and explore the legacies of political and civil conflict around the world The book focuses on the experience of post Apartheid South Africa post Troubles Northern Ireland and post dictatorship Latin America The recent history of these regions and in particular their acute experience of ethno religious and civil conflict make them highly productive contexts in which to begin examining the role of literature in the aftermath of social trauma Rather than a definitive account of the subject the collection defines a new field for literary studies and opens it up to scholars working in other regional and national contexts To this end the book includes essays on post 1989 Germany post 9 11 United States the Israeli Palestinian conflict Sierra Leone and narratives of asylum seeker refugee communities This volume s comparative frame draws on well established precedents for thinking about the cultural politics of these regions making it a valuable resource for scholars of Comparative Literature Peace and Conflicts Studies Human Rights Transitional Justice and the Politics of Literature The Trauma Question Roger Luckhurst, 2013-06-17 In this book Roger Luckhurst both introduces and advances the fields of cultural memory and trauma studies tracing the ways in which ideas of trauma have become a major element in contemporary Western conceptions of the self The Trauma Question outlines the origins of the concept of trauma across psychiatric legal and cultural political sources from the 1860s to the coining of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder in 1980 It further explores the nature and extent of trauma culture from 1980 to the present drawing upon a range of cultural practices from literature memoirs and confessional journalism through to photography and film The study covers a diverse range of cultural works including writers such as Toni Morrison Stephen King and W G Sebald artists Tracey Emin Christian Boltanski and Tracey Moffatt and film makers David Lynch and Atom Egoyan The Trauma Question offers a significant and fascinating step forward for those seeking a greater understanding of the controversial and ever expanding field of trauma research

Neo-Victorian Literature and Culture Nadine Boehm-Schnitker, Susanne Gruss, 2014-06-05 This book provides a comprehensive reflection of the processes of canonization, unpleasurable consumption and the emerging predominance of topics and theoretical concerns in neo Victorianism. The repetitions and reiterations of the Victorian in contemporary culture document an unbroken fascination with the histories, technologies and achievements as well as the injustices and atrocities of the nineteenth century. They also reveal that in many ways contemporary identities are constructed through a Victorian mirror image fabricated by the desires, imaginings and critical interests of the present. Providing analyses of current negotiations of nineteenth century texts, discourses and traumas, this volume explores the contemporary commodification and nostalgic recreation of the past. It brings together critical perspectives of experts in the fields of Victorian literature and culture, contemporary literature and neo Victorianism, with contributions by leading scholars in the field, including Rosario Arias, Cora Kaplan, Elizabeth Ho, Marie Luise Kohlke and Sally Shuttleworth. Neo Victorian Literature and Culture interrogates current fashions in neo Victorianism and their ideological leanings, the resurrection of cultural icons and the reasons behind our relationship with and immersion in Victorian culture.

Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend Dr Donna Coates, 2023-11-01 War is traditionally considered a male experience. By extension, the genre of war literature is a male dominated field and the tale of the battlefield remains the privileged and only canonised war story. In Australia, although women have written extensively about their wartime experiences, their voices have been distinctively silenced. Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend calls for a re definition of war literature to include the numerous voices of women writers and further recommends a re reading of Australian national literatures with women's war writing foregrounded to break the hold of a male dominated literary tradition and pass on a vital but unexplored women's tradition. Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend examines the rich body of World Wars I and II and Vietnam War literature by Australian women, providing the critical attention and treatment that they deserve. Donna Coates records the reaction of Australian women writers to these conflicts, illuminating the complex role of gender in the interpretation of war and in the cultural history of twentieth century Australia. By visiting an astonishing number of unfamiliar, non canonical texts, Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend profoundly alters our understanding of how Australian women writers have interpreted war, especially in a nation where the experience of colonising a frontier has spawned enduring myths of identity and statehood.

With just a few clicks, we can now access a wealth of knowledge from the comfort of our own homes or on the go. This article will explore the advantages of Trauma And Survival In Contemporary Fiction books and manuals for download, along with some popular platforms that offer these resources. One of the significant advantages of Trauma And Survival In Contemporary Fiction books and manuals for download is the cost-saving aspect. Traditional books and manuals can be costly, especially if you need to purchase several of them for educational or professional purposes. By accessing Trauma And Survival In Contemporary Fiction versions, you eliminate the need to spend money on physical copies. This not only saves you money but also reduces the environmental impact associated with book production and transportation. Furthermore, Trauma And Survival In Contemporary Fiction books and manuals for download are incredibly convenient. With just a computer or smartphone and an internet connection, you can access a vast library of resources on any subject imaginable. Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Trauma And Survival In Contemporary Fiction books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Trauma And Survival In Contemporary Fiction books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Trauma And Survival In Contemporary Fiction books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips.
