Treats With Team Sayings:

Twenty Years of Life Suzanne Bohan, 2018-04-19 In Twenty Years of Life Suzanne Bohan exposes the ugly truth that health is largely determined by zip code Life expectancies in wealthy versus poor neighborhoods can vary by as much as twenty years Bohan chronicles a bold experiment to challenge that inequity The California Endowment one of the nation's largest health foundations is upending the old school top down charity model and investing 1 billion over ten years to help distressed communities advocate for their own interests With compassion and insight Bohan shares stories of students and parents former street shooters urban farmers and a Native American tribe who are tapping into their latent political power to make their neighborhoods healthier Their stories will fundamentally change how we think about the root causes of disease and the prospects for healing

Re-Imagining Short-Term Missions Forrest Inslee, Angel Burns, 2022-03-10 This book is for those who suspect that current practices of short term missions are in need of serious reform It is a book for those who recognize that in this decade of global upheaval and in light of the cultural political and demographic shifts affecting churches everywhere now is the time for change The essays here are intended to equip and inspire any who want to advocate for change but may not yet know what change looks like This book offers honest perspectives from people who care about the purposes of short term missions STM yet know that we must figure out better ways of achieving them Nearly all contributors are actively engaged in STM and many write from the perspective of those who host STM teams in places all over the world This book is a platform for visionaries who are calling for better ways for the church to engage the needs of the world In sharing their experiences they hope to promote critical rethinking and creative reimagination about the ways that the global church might learn to collaborate on a new basis of coequality and mutual respect for the good of the world and the glory of God
