Working Today for a Better Tomorrow in Ethiopia Emily Weedon Chapman, Margaux Vinez, 2024-03-06 Working Today for a Better Tomorrow in Ethiopia Jobs for Poor and Vulnerable Households      Randomized Control Trials in the Field of Development Florent Bédécarrats, Isabelle Guérin, François Roubaud, 2020 Randomized Control Trials in the Field of Development provides a critical perspective on the use of randomized control trials in development and poverty alleviation policies warning against their excessive use and proposing improvements and alternatives      Experimental Conversations Timothy N. Ogden, 2024-03-19 Discussions of the use and limits of randomized control trials considering the power of theory external validity gaps in knowledge and what issues matter The practice of development economics has undergone something of a revolution as many economists have adopted new methods to answer perennial questions about the effectiveness of anti poverty programs In this book prominent development economists discuss the use and impact of one of the most significant of these new methods randomized control trials RCTs and field experiments In extended interviews conducted over a period of several years they explain their work and their thinking and consider the broader issues of how we learn about the world and how we can change it for the better These conversations offer specialists and nonspecialists alike a unique opportunity to hear economists speak in their own words free of the confines of a particular study or econometric esoterica The economists describe how they apply research findings in the way they think about the world revealing their ideas about the power of theory external validity gaps in knowledge and what issues matter Also included are interviews with RCT observers critics sponsors consumers and others Each interview provides a brief biography of the interviewee Thorough annotations offer background and explanations for key ideas and studies referred to in the conversations Contributors Abhijit Banerjee Nancy Birdsall Chris Blattman Alex Counts Tyler Cowen Angus Deaton Frank DeGiovanni Esther Duflo Pascaline Dupas Xavi Gine Rachel Glennerster Judy Gueron Elie Hassenfeld Dean Karlan Michael Kremer David McKenzie Jonathan Morduch Lant Pritchett Jonathan Robinson Antoinette Schoar Dean Yang      Civil Society and the Reform of Finance Charles McDaniel, Jr., 2015-07-16 Efforts to resolve the recent financial crisis have obscured a more deeply rooted financialization crisis that impacts not only the market economy but also the vital civic and moral traditions that support it This book reveals the cultural influence of finance in reshaping the foundations of American civil society and proposes a return to certain first principles of the Republic to restore the nation s economic vision This book demonstrates how funding concerns and financial incentives revalue faith traditions educational institutions non profit organizations and even the nation s healthcare system in ways that are eroding the diversity of American culture These changes also undermine the ethical framework of both democratic government and the free market system While financial influence has diminished the value of civil society this book proposes that revitalized intermediary institutions still offer the best path forward in restoring the financial sector and more broadly enriching the American competitive ethic toward development of a more virtuous economy The book is written for an academic and professional audience offering a blueprint for the involvement of civil society with government in providing more communally integrated oversight that could contribute to a genuine democratization of finance     The Economics of Education Steve Bradley,Colin Green,2020-01-20 The

Row planting teff in Ethiopia Vandercasteelen, Joachim,Dereje, Mekdim,Minten, Bart,Taffesse, Alemayehu Seyoum,2016-07-01 Improved technologies are increasingly promoted to farmers in sub Saharan African countries to address low agricultural productivity in their staple crops There is however a lack of evidence on how adoption affects farmers labor use and profitability at the farm level as well as the importance gender roles play all essential drivers for the successful up scaling of the use of the improved technologies This paper analyses the labor and profitability impact of the recently introduced row planting technology in teff production in Ethiopia Based on agronomic evidence in experimental settings the Government of Ethiopia has focused extension efforts on promoting the widespread uptake of row planting to address low teff yields replacing the traditional broadcasting method of plant teff Using an innovative Randomized Controlled Trial set up we show that the implementation of row planting at the farm level significantly increases total labor use but not teff yields relative to broadcast planting resulting in a substantial drop in labor productivity when adopting row planting. Moreover the implementation of row planting has important consequences for inter and intra household labor allocation with relatively more use of non family labor. The adoption of row planting was further found not to be profitable for farmers in the first year of the promotion campaign seemingly explaining the limited success in up scaling the adoption of the technology by farmers in the second year of the program.
